Collin Mitchell, Managing Partner, Blue Land Homes

Louis real estate investment company focused on revitalizing homes and building quality rental housing, today announced the opening of its new office in Clayton, Missouri.

The office marks a milestone for husband-and-wife team Collin Mitchell and Kelly Mitchell, Managing Partners of Blue Land Homes, after three years of investing across the St. Louis metro area, during which the company has acquired and renovated over 150+ distressed and outdated properties, while steadily building a rental portfolio aimed at expanding quality, affordable housing in the region.

"St. Louis has become an incredibly important part of our lives and our business," said Collin Mitchell. "What started three years ago as investing in a new market has grown into a real operation with an incredible local team and a long-term commitment to this community. Opening an office in Clayton is another step toward putting deeper roots down in St. Louis."

Blue Land Homes partners with homeowners, real estate agents, wholesalers, contractors, lenders and other local professionals to acquire properties in need of renovation an approach centered on improving the region's housing stock while creating opportunities for local contractors, vendors and real estate professionals.

For the Mitchells, the expansion is about more than transaction volume.

"We believe you can build a great real estate business while also making a positive impact on the neighborhoods where you invest," said Kelly Mitchell. "Every neglected property that gets renovated becomes a home for another family and an improvement to the surrounding community."

The Clayton office will serve as the central hub for Blue Land Homes' St. Louis operations spanning acquisitions, construction and renovation management, rental portfolio growth, and relationships with local real estate professionals as the company continues expanding its investment activity throughout the metro area in the years ahead.
