The investment marks a major milestone for Rocksalt Interactive as the company enters a new phase of strategic growth backed by the continued support of its parent group. The move reflects LCGC Resolute Group's confidence in Rocksalt's long-term vision, growing industry presence, and expanding role within the global interactive entertainment ecosystem.

Over the years, Rocksalt Interactive has steadily evolved its capabilities across co-development, external development, game art production, live experiences, and emerging interactive platforms. As the gaming industry continues to rapidly transform through advancements in technology, player engagement, and digital production, the company is positioning itself to scale alongside these industry shifts while strengthening its long-term global presence.

"This investment represents more than capital , it reflects long-term strategic alignment," said Mr. Dilber Mann, Corporate Director at Rocksalt Interactive. "With the backing of LCGC Resolute, we are accelerating our evolution into a full-spectrum interactive entertainment partner, combining co-development excellence, metaverse innovation, and original IP development services for our clients."

The company stated that this next phase will focus on strengthening Rocksalt's long-term positioning within the industry while continuing to expand its operational scale, global partnerships, and creative capabilities across multiple segments of the gaming and interactive entertainment market.

As part of this strategic direction, Rocksalt Interactive aims to continue building sustainable long-term growth while expanding its role as a trusted development and production partner for studios, publishers, brands, and emerging digital platforms worldwide.

The investment further reinforces LCGC Resolute Group's commitment to supporting scalable businesses operating at the intersection of gaming, technology, and digital entertainment, while positioning Rocksalt Interactive for continued momentum in an increasingly competitive global market.
