Morris County’s Living History Weekend Set for Sept. 25-27

Three-Day Morristown Event to Feature Revolutionary War Reenactors, Historic Sites, Programs and Festival on the Green

MORRISTOWN, NJ, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Morris County will host Living History Weekend from Sept. 25 through Sept. 27 in Morristown, a three-day series of events highlighting the county’s Revolutionary War history as part of its ongoing commemoration of America’s 250th anniversary.

Morris County’s Living History Weekend, Sept. 25–27 in Morristown, will commemorate America’s 250th anniversary with three days of Revolutionary War history, programs and events.

Programming will include Revolutionary-era reenactors and historic figures on the Morristown Green, special programs and tours at historic sites throughout Morristown, a Revolutionary history trivia night and a History Corridor at the annual Morristown Festival on the Green.

“Living History Weekend" gives people an opportunity to experience our history in the places where it actually happened. We are proud to help connect a new generation with the stories that helped shape our county and our nation during this historic year,” said Morris County Commissioner Director Stephen Shaw.

“Our goal was to create a weekend where people can choose from a variety of historic experiences happening throughout Morristown. We want families, residents and visitors to experience Morris County’s incredible history in a way that is fun, engaging and accessible,” said Sarah Neibart, executive director of the Morris County 250th Anniversary Celebrations Committee.

The three-day schedule includes:

Friday, Sept. 25: Revolutionary History Trivia Night
Living History Weekend begins with Revolutionary History Trivia Night from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Glenbrook Brewery. Participants can test their knowledge of the American Revolution and Morris County history.

Saturday, Sept. 26: Living History Comes to Morristown
From 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., the Morristown Green will feature Revolutionary-era reenactors, historic figures and demonstrations. Activities will include a militia, 18th-century medical and weaponry exhibits and a silhouette artist.

From 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., historic organizations throughout Morristown will also offer special programs, exhibits, talks and tours.

Participating sites and programs include:
– Macculloch Hall Historical Museum: Explore the historic museum and its nationally significant collection, including the nation's largest single collection of original works by political cartoonist Thomas Nast.
– Sansay House: The American Friends of Lafayette will share the story and legacy of the Marquis de Lafayette.
– Presbyterian Church in Morristown: The Morris County Historical Society will present talks about local history and the people and events that shaped the community.

Additional historic sites and programs will be announced as the weekend approaches.

Sunday, Sept. 27: History Corridor at Festival on the Green
Living History Weekend concludes Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. during the Morristown Partnership's annual Festival on the Green.
A special History Corridor will feature Morris County historic sites and organizations, providing information about the people, places and events that shaped Morris County and the nation.

Living History Weekend is presented by the Morris County 250th Anniversary Celebrations Committee, Morris County Board of County Commissioners, Morris County Tourism Bureau and F. M. Kirby Foundation, in partnership with the Morris County Chamber of Commerce and Morris County Economic Development Corporation, the Town of Morristown, Morristown Partnership, Trustees of the Morristown Green, Sanofi, Morristown Fire Department, participating historic sites and organizations, and other community partners.

Visitors also can explore Morristown and Morris County's restaurants, breweries, shops, museums, parks and other attractions throughout the weekend. A special hotel room block is available at the Hyatt Regency Morristown for Living History Weekend attendees.
