

Hide-A-Way Harbor Mobile Home and RV Park Announces New Ownership

New ownership is unifying the property's mobile-home and RV identities under a single name and preparing refreshed on-site signage.

ASTATULA, FL, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hide-A-Way Harbor Mobile Home and RV Park announced that Suncoast HH Investors, LLC is the new owner and operator of the Astatula waterfront community, with a focus on a unified property identity and long-term stewardship.

The ownership transition became effective on June 24, 2026. Suncoast HH Investors, LLC does business as Hide-A-Way Harbor Mobile Home and RV Park.

Located at 48 Harbor Circle in Astatula, Hide-A-Way Harbor serves RV guests and residents in a waterfront setting on Lake Harris. The property offers waterfront RV sites on Lake Harris.

One early priority under the new ownership is bringing the property's public identity together. The mobile-home community and RV park have historically been presented under two different names. The new team is unifying them under the approved public-facing name "Hide-A-Way Harbor Mobile Home and RV Park."

The team is also preparing refreshed on-site signage and planning future opportunities for manufactured-home living in Astatula. Specific home inventory, pricing, incentives and timing will be announced only after those details are finalized.

"Hide-A-Way Harbor already has the waterfront setting and sense of community that make it special. Our priority is to listen, bring the property under one clear identity and make it easier for residents, RV guests and future homebuyers to understand the options available," said Brian Ford, Managing Partner.

As part of the transition, the new team is reviewing the property information residents, guests and prospective buyers use most often, including contact details, stay options, residential opportunities and current park policies. The goal is to make those details consistent and easy to confirm directly with management.
