

Soberlink to Exhibit at AACC's 2026 Faith & Flourishing National Christian Counseling Conference

ARLINGTON, TX, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Association of Christian Counselors will host the Faith & Flourishing Mega National Christian Counseling Conference September 10–12, 2026, at the Loews Arlington Hotel in Arlington, Texas. Soberlink is proud to support the event as an Exhibitor.

The conference brings together clinical, pastoral, and lay caregivers from across the country for training in counseling, coaching, recovery, and marriage and family support. Attendees can expect sessions from leading experts in the field, along with continuing education credits and opportunities to build professional relationships with Christian counselors, coaches, pastors, and leaders from around the nation.

Soberlink will be in attendance at the conference, connecting with counseling and care professionals committed to supporting accountability and lasting recovery in their work.

For more information about the conference, visit <https://nationalaacc.com/>.
