

Local Cleaning Services Inc. Highlights Professional Upholstery Cleaning for Los Angeles-Area Homes

Local company helps homeowners remove embedded dirt, stains, pet odors, and allergens from upholstered furniture using non-toxic cleaning solutions.

LOS ANGELES , CA, UNITED STATES, September 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local Cleaning Services Inc. is highlighting its professional upholstery cleaning services in Los Angeles, helping local homeowners refresh sofas, sectionals, chairs, mattresses, and other upholstered furniture.

Furniture can gradually collect dust, allergens, pet dander, food residue, body oils, and outdoor pollutants. These contaminants often settle beneath the fabric's surface, making them difficult to remove through routine vacuuming or spot cleaning alone.

Local Cleaning Services Inc. uses professional cleaning equipment and water-based, non-toxic products to loosen and extract embedded buildup while protecting the upholstery material. Its technicians evaluate each item before cleaning to account for its fabric, condition, stains, and other specific concerns.

The company's upholstery cleaning process includes:

- An initial evaluation of the furniture and fabric
- Pre-treatment of stains and heavily soiled areas
- Professional steam cleaning and water extraction
- Treatment for lingering stains and odors
- A final inspection and furniture-care recommendations

The service can address common problems such as food and beverage spills, accumulated soil, pet stains, pet odors, dust, and allergens. Cleaning products are selected with the safety of children and pets in mind and do not rely on harsh chemicals.

Most upholstered pieces typically dry within three to five hours, although drying time may vary based on the fabric, ventilation, and environmental conditions. Customers also receive guidance to support safe, efficient drying following their appointments.

In addition to sofas and chairs, Local Cleaning Services Inc. cleans sectionals, ottomans, mattresses, and outdoor upholstered furniture. Customers can also coordinate upholstery cleaning with the company's carpet, rug, and tile and grout cleaning services.

Local Cleaning Services Inc. serves communities throughout Los Angeles and Orange counties, including Beverly Hills, Brentwood, Culver City, Glendale, Hollywood, Malibu, Pasadena, Santa Monica, Torrance, Venice, West Hollywood, and surrounding areas.
