

AMMWEC National Coalition Against Antisemitism & Hate Extends Rosh Hashanah Greetings to Jewish Communities

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The AMMWEC National Coalition Against Antisemitism & Hate extends its warmest wishes for a happy Rosh Hashanah to Jewish people in the United States, Israel and communities around the world.

Rosh Hashanah begins a sacred season of reflection, renewal and hope. The sound of the shofar calls the soul to awaken—to examine the year that has passed, seek forgiveness, return to what is righteous and begin again with courage and faith.

"As a Muslim American, I am deeply honored to stand beside my Jewish friends and neighbors during this sacred season," said Anila Ali, founder and president of the American Muslim & Multifaith Women's Empowerment Council. "At a time when Jewish communities continue to confront antisemitism and hatred, please know that you are not alone. AMMWEC and our National Coalition Against Antisemitism & Hate remain steadfast in our commitment to standing with the Jewish people, defending religious freedom and building a future in which every person can worship and live without fear."

The coalition offers its prayers for healing where there has been pain, light where there has been darkness and peace for families and communities throughout America, Israel and the entire world.

May the coming year bring sweetness, good health, renewed faith and abundant blessings. May the Jewish people and their loved ones be inscribed for a good and peaceful year.

Shanah Tovah U'Metukah!
