I've spent the last 15+ years doing what I love, helping people feel comfortable, confident, and amazing in front of the camera, and I'm incredibly grateful to be recognized among the top 1%”

Alex Campos

The recognition from Megan DiPiero acknowledges photography businesses that demonstrate outstanding achievement in their craft, client service, and business operations. For Alex Blair Photography, this honor reflects more than 15 years of dedicated work in the portrait photography industry and a consistent focus on helping clients feel confident and comfortable during their photography sessions.

Alex Campos founded Alex Blair Photography with a clear vision of creating a photography experience that goes beyond simply capturing images. The studio specializes in portraits, professional headshots, branding photography, and boudoir photography, serving clients throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Each session is designed to be both impactful and enjoyable, allowing clients to express their authentic selves while receiving polished, professional results.

The studio's approach to photography emphasizes creating a welcoming environment where clients can relax and enjoy the experience. This philosophy has proven successful, as evidenced by the Top 1% recognition and the studio's reputation throughout the Dallas, Keller, Southlake, and Colleyville communities. Campos brings her extensive experience to every session, whether working with professionals seeking polished headshots for their careers, individuals looking for empowering boudoir portraits, or families wanting to capture meaningful moments together.

Professional headshots and branding photography have become increasingly important for individuals and businesses looking to establish a strong visual presence. Alex Blair Photography addresses this need by offering sessions that capture personality and professionalism in equal measure. The studio's location in the Dallas-Fort Worth area makes it accessible to clients throughout North Texas who are seeking high-quality portrait photography services.

The Top 1% Photography Business recognition serves as validation of the studio's dedication to excellence and its impact on clients who have trusted Alex Blair Photography to capture their most important moments and milestones over the past decade and a half.

I've spent the last 15+ years doing what I love, helping people feel comfortable, confident, and amazing in front of the camera, and I'm incredibly grateful to be recognized among the top 1%.
