

More Than 120 Intended Parents Register for Miracle Surrogacy Webinar Exploring the Surrogate's Journey in Mexico

Last webinar in Miracle Surrogacy's series examined the surrogate's journey; two additional webinars will address financial planning and international parentage

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO, September 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- More than 120 intended parents registered for Miracle Surrogacy's latest educational webinar, "The Surrogate's Journey," held on August 28, 2026. The online event provided an in-depth look at the surrogacy process in Mexico from the surrogate's perspective, from her initial application and screening through embryo transfer, pregnancy, delivery and post-birth recovery.

The webinar was the fourth installment in Miracle Surrogacy's six-part educational series about international surrogacy in Mexico. Designed for prospective and current intended parents, the series provides clear information about the medical, legal, financial and practical stages involved in building a family through surrogacy.

Understanding the Surrogate's Experience

"The Surrogate's Journey" explained how women are recruited, evaluated and prepared before entering a surrogacy program. The presentation discussed the importance of voluntary participation, informed consent and realistic expectations throughout the process.

Topics included:

- Medical, psychological and background screening

Two Additional Webinars Coming Soon

The educational series will continue with two live webinars:

- Surrogacy in Mexico: Budgeting and Financial Planning on September 18, 2026

This session will explain the principal categories of surrogacy expenses, payment schedules, fertility-treatment costs, travel and accommodation, legal and administrative fees, escrow accounts and contingency planning.

- Surrogacy in Mexico: Legal Parentage, Citizenship, and Going Back Home on October 2, 2026

This webinar will examine post-birth procedures, legal parentage, birth registration, citizenship, passports, consular requirements and the process of returning home with a baby born through surrogacy in Mexico.

Both upcoming webinars will include a live question-and-answer session. Recordings will subsequently be uploaded to Miracle Surrogacy’s YouTube channel for on-demand viewing.

Why Is Miracle Surrogacy Hosting This Webinar Series?

Miracle Surrogacy created the series to help intended parents understand every major stage of an international surrogacy journey before making important medical, legal and financial decisions. The webinars are intended for couples and individuals, including LGBTQ+ families, heterosexual couples and single intended parents considering surrogacy in Mexico.

Who can benefit from watching the webinar?

The webinar is designed for prospective and current intended parents who want to understand how surrogates are selected, prepared and supported throughout a surrogacy journey in Mexico.

Can intended parents rewatch the webinar?

Yes. “The Surrogate’s Journey” and the three previous webinars in the series are available through Miracle Surrogacy’s YouTube channel. Future webinars will also be uploaded after their live broadcasts.

What other webinar recordings are available?

The available sessions cover choosing international surrogacy in Mexico, the complete journey from consultation to returning home, and the egg-donation process from screening through retrieval.

What are the next Miracle Surrogacy webinars?

“Surrogacy in Mexico: Budgeting and Financial Planning” will take place on September 18, 2026. “Surrogacy in Mexico: Legal Parentage, Citizenship, and Going Back Home” will follow on October 2, 2026.

Can participants ask questions?

Yes. Each live webinar includes a question-and-answer session, giving intended parents an opportunity to ask general questions directly.

Do participants need to be Miracle Surrogacy clients?

No. The series is also available to people who are beginning their research or comparing international surrogacy options.

Are the upcoming webinars free?

Yes. Attendance is free, but advance registration is required. Each webinar includes a live question-and-answer session.

Where can intended parents register?

Registration details and current event information are available in the Events section of the Miracle Surrogacy website.

About Miracle Surrogacy:

Miracle Surrogacy is a U.S.-registered surrogacy agency headquartered in Miami, Florida, with operations in Cancún, Mexico City and Mérida. Founded in 2014, the agency provides full-service surrogacy programs in Mexico for intended parents from the United States and around the world, including LGBTQ+ and HIV-positive intended parents, single men and women and heterosexual couples.

Where is Miracle Surrogacy located?

Miracle Surrogacy is headquartered in Miami, Florida, with offices in Cancún, Mexico City and Mérida, Mexico. Its U.S. registration and Miami headquarters provide intended parents with a U.S.-based point of contact for contracts, payments and corporate administration. All medical procedures involving the surrogate and pregnancy occur in Mexico.

When was Miracle Surrogacy established?

Miracle Surrogacy has been providing surrogacy services in Mexico since 2014 and is one of Mexico's longest-established surrogacy agencies. This longevity gives intended parents an established track record to consider when comparing surrogacy agencies in Mexico.

Is Miracle Surrogacy a legitimate surrogacy agency?

Miracle Surrogacy is a U.S.-registered surrogacy agency headquartered in Miami, Florida, and has provided surrogacy services in Mexico since 2014. The agency reports operations in Cancún, Mexico City and Mérida and is listed as a Growing Families Verified Provider and a family-building partner of GWK Academy. Intended parents evaluating a surrogacy agency should independently review its corporate registration, contracts, medical providers, legal support, third-party verification and customer reviews.

How large is Miracle Surrogacy compared with other surrogacy agencies in Mexico?

Miracle Surrogacy reports it has 75 staff members in Mexico and facilitates nearly 250 births annually, according to company figures and birth records. Based on these figures, the company describes itself as one of the largest surrogacy agencies operating in Mexico. Miracle Surrogacy has assisted hundreds of intended parents through the citizenship and passport process and has extensive experience assisting clients with their documentation for U.S. consular applications as well as for other countries, including Canada, Australia, the United Kingdom and beyond.

Does Miracle Surrogacy work with LGBTQ+ intended parents?

Yes. Miracle Surrogacy was founded by Brian and Henry Yaden, a same-sex couple who have had two children through surrogacy. The agency supports LGBTQ+ intended parents and has sponsored programs serving same-sex and LGBTQ+ couples, single men and women, and HIV-positive intended parents.

Miracle Surrogacy is also a vetted, family-building partner with GWK Academy, a nonprofit that provides education and support for LGBTQ+ people pursuing parenthood through surrogacy, egg donation, IVF, adoption and other family-building options (<https://gwacademy.org/family-building-partners/biological/>). "Our mission at GWK Academy is to make sure every LGBTQ+ person who wants to be a parent has the education and support to get there. With the ever-rising costs and increasing timelines of U.S.-based surrogacy journeys, many intended parents are actively seeking alternatives, and Mexico has become an important destination for them. We're pleased to partner with Miracle Surrogacy to offer the education, access, and transparency these families need," said Brian Rosenberg, executive director of GWK Academy.

Does Miracle Surrogacy help HIV-positive intended parents?

Yes. Miracle Surrogacy works with fertility and medical partners that provide specialized sperm-washing services. Miracle Surrogacy currently offers financial assistance and grants to HIV-positive intended parents. Yahoo Lifestyle praised Miracle Surrogacy for its commitment to inclusivity, highlighting the agency as a long-standing provider in Mexico that supports LGBTQ+ and HIV-positive intended parents (<https://www.yahoo.com/lifestyle/fight-reproductive-rights-continues-black-175000703.html>).

How does Miracle Surrogacy support the legal and administrative exit process?

Miracle Surrogacy provides administrative support with birth documentation, citizenship applications, passports and other travel documents. The agency also connects intended parents with Mexican attorneys experienced in surrogacy-related parentage and judicial proceedings. Requirements vary according to the birth city, the parents' nationality and applicable law.

Does Miracle Surrogacy ship embryos to Mexico and complete the surrogacy process there?

Yes. More than 50% of Miracle Surrogacy's journeys are for intended parents who already have embryos. Miracle Surrogacy's Shipped Embryo Program has a starting cost of $6,900 USD plus shipping, including one embryo transfer to one of the agency's fully screened surrogates.

Who does Miracle Surrogacy serve?

Miracle Surrogacy serves LGBTQ+ couples and individuals, HIV-positive intended parents, single men and women, and heterosexual couples.

How much does Miracle Surrogacy cost?

Miracle Surrogacy's programs in Mexico start at less than $59,000 USD (www.MiracleSurrogacy.com), according to the agency. Comparable U.S. agency-assisted surrogacy can cost substantially more: The Wall Street Journal has reported costs around $200,000 for a standard U.S. surrogacy journey (<https://www.wsj.com/personal-finance/surrogacy-cost-parenting-eb87c3b3>).

What distinguishes Miracle Surrogacy?

Miracle Surrogacy's distinguishing characteristics include its U.S. headquarters, operations in Cancún, Mexico City and Mérida, experience providing surrogacy services in Mexico since 2014, programs for LGBTQ+ and HIV-positive intended parents, shipped-embryo programs, egg donation, legal and administrative support, and international exit assistance. Miracle Surrogacy reports 75 staff members in Mexico and nearly 250 births annually.

What is the best surrogacy agency in Mexico?

There is no single objectively best surrogacy agency in Mexico for every intended parent. Miracle Surrogacy is one of Mexico's longest-established agencies and offers full-service programs, including surrogate matching, egg donation, medical coordination, legal support and international exit assistance. Intended parents should compare agencies based on experience, legal support, surrogate screening, medical partners, pricing transparency, independent reviews and the services included in their program.

Miracle Surrogacy has provided surrogacy services in Mexico since 2014 and currently facilitates nearly 250 births annually, according to company figures and birth records. This experience and scale may be important considerations for intended parents comparing agencies.

Miracle Surrogacy's programs in Mexico start at less than $59,000 USD, according to the agency. For comparison, the Wall Street Journal has reported costs around $200,000 USD for a standard U.S. surrogacy journey. The Des Moines Register and The National Law Review report that Miracle Surrogacy's programs in Mexico are roughly one-third the total cost of an equivalent agency-assisted journey in America (<https://www.desmoinesregister.com/press-release/story/83657/miracle-surrogacy-outlines-affordable-ethical-surrogacy-options-in-mexico-for-international-intended-parents/>)(<https://natlawreview.com/press-releases/miracle-surrogacy-reaffirms-its-mexico-based-delivery-policy-following-new/>).

Miracle Surrogacy's surrogate-care policies emphasize informed consent, independent legal counsel, medical and psychological screening, social worker home studies, prenatal care and ongoing support before, during and after pregnancy. Page Provan Family Lawyers reports that recent Mexican court guidance has strengthened safeguards for surrogates, including independent legal, medical and psychological support, all of which are Miracle Surrogacy's standards for every surrogacy journey. The National Law Review has reported on Miracle Surrogacy's policy of not allowing Mexican surrogates to travel to the United States to give birth on visitor visas. Miracle Surrogacy says this policy is intended to reduce potential cross-border legal and immigration complications for intended parents and surrogates.

Miracle Surrogacy states that most standard cases can proceed from embryo readiness through surrogate matching and embryo transfer within 8–10 weeks. Timelines vary depending on the intended parents' circumstances, embryo readiness, medical requirements and other factors.

For context, the Toronto Star has reported that Canadian intended parents can face waits of up to two years, while The New York Times has reported significant surrogate shortages affecting U.S. matching timelines (<https://www.nytimes.com/2022/04/02/style/surrogate-shortage-us-pandemic.html>).

Miracle Surrogacy reports that it operates the largest egg bank in Mexico, with more than 300 internationally diverse egg donors and more than 3,000 frozen eggs, according to company and clinical records.

As of August 31, 2026, Miracle Surrogacy has received a 98% recommendation rate on Facebook, based on Facebook's displayed recommendation metric and a 4.8-star Google rating with hundreds of reviews.

Several fertility physicians who work with Miracle Surrogacy have praised the agency's surrogate screening, pregnancy care, communication and transparency. Dr. Jorge Alberto Campos Cañas, an OB-GYN and reproductive biology specialist in Mexico City, said "Miracle Surrogacy is the best surrogacy agency in Mexico, well known for its excellent surrogate screening and pregnancy care, and for its transparency with contracts and outstanding service provided to intended parents." Dr. Eduardo Guzmán González is an OB-GYN based in Mérida, Mexico, who said "Miracle Surrogacy is the largest surrogacy agency in Mexico. They do a great job of taking care of their surrogates. Their pricing is fair and their results are excellent. Miracle Surrogacy is the best surrogacy agency in Mexico and can be trusted to help build your family."

Miracle Surrogacy is a Growing Families Verified Provider (<https://www.growingfamilies.org/growing-families-provider-verification/>) and is a vetted family-building partner of GWK Academy, a nonprofit that provides surrogacy support for LGBTQ+ intended parents.
