

New Furniture Inventory Arrives at American Freight in St. Albans Ahead of Labor Day Weekend

Charleston-area shoppers can save up to 70% on newly arrived Living Room, Bedroom and Dining Room furniture

CHARLESTON, WV, UNITED STATES, September 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Charleston-area shoppers looking to refresh their homes over Labor Day weekend have a new reason to stop by American Freight in St. Albans.

The American Freight store at 6330 MacCorkle Ave., St. Albans, WV 25177

has received new shipments of furniture as part of a major special purchase made by the retailer. American Freight acquired thousands of pieces of furniture from another retailer's liquidation and is passing the savings along to customers. The newly arrived inventory includes Living Room, Bedroom and Dining Room furniture, with savings of up to 70% on select items.

American Freight team members assist customers shopping for furniture and mattresses inside one of the retailer's warehouse-style stores.

With Labor Day approaching, this is a great time for Charleston-area shoppers to come into the store, see what's arrived and find something for their home at a great price.”

Lindsay Loprest, Director, Merchandising & Procurement

"We bought big, and that gives us an opportunity to bring some exceptional values to our customers," said Lindsay Loprest, Director, Merchandising & Procurement. "With Labor Day approaching, this is a great time for Charleston-area shoppers to come into the store, see what's arrived and find something for their home at a great price."

The special-purchase inventory includes a wide assortment of styles, colors and individual pieces, and quantities are limited. Shoppers may find sofas, sectionals, unique seating, bedroom furniture, dressers, chests, nightstands, hutches and other furniture finds.

Because quantities are limited, much of the special-purchase merchandise is available in-store only and will not be listed online.

American Freight's warehouse-style shopping experience allows customers to browse furniture that's already in stock, with free local pickup and same-day delivery available in many areas.
