Propellus Launches New Corporate Website, Unveiling a Unified Platform for Business Funding and Investing

New site combines business funding products and investment program into a single platform, reflecting its evolution into a two-sided capital markets business.

RED BANK, NJ, UNITED STATES, September 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Propellus Launches New Corporate Website, Unveiling a Unified Platform for Business Funding and Investing

New site at propelluscorp.com introduces a streamlined experience for growing businesses seeking capital and accredited investors seeking opportunities

Propellus, Inc. (OTC PINK: PRPS), an Oklahoma-based alternative finance company specializing in small business capital solutions, today announced the launch of its redesigned corporate website, propelluscorp.com. The new site consolidates the company's business funding products and its investment program into a single, streamlined platform, reflecting Propellus' evolution into a two-sided capital markets business.

> "The website now reflects funding and investment portals all under one roof. It's a clearer front door for both sides of what we do."
> Ralph Johnson, CEO

The redesign, led by Chief Marketing Officer, Christian Farah, was built to serve two distinct audiences under one roof: small and mid-sized businesses in need of fast, flexible capital, and accredited investors seeking opportunities. Farah adds, "The site outlines Propellus' core funding products — including invoice factoring, future receivables financing, asset-based lending, and debt consolidation — alongside a dedicated investor portal detailing the company's offering."

"Supporting U.S. business, one company at a time, has always been at the center of what we do," said Ralph Johnson, Chief Executive Officer of Propellus. "Our new site reflects how far that mission has grown — businesses now come to us for capital, and investors come to us for opportunities that capital generates, all under one roof. It's a clearer front door for both sides of what we do."

The new site highlights Propellus' track record — well over 100 years of collective finance expertise among its leadership team, with 35+ coming from CEO Johnson alone — alongside its ability to deliver funding decisions in days rather than months. For investors, the platform details information about its offering including summaries, a slide deck, and an FAQ section.

Alongside its funding and investment content, propelluscorp.com features a dedicated Investor Relations section for shareholders following the company's OTC-listed common stock, a leadership page introducing the Propellus management team, and a press page consolidating the company's public announcements.

Businesses can apply for funding, and investors can request more information directly through the new site's application portals at propelluscorp.com.
