-- Centenario Unveils Premium High-Polyphenol Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Centenario Gardens is proud to announce the launch of its Centenario High Polyphenol Extra Virgin Olive Oil, now available for health-conscious consumers and culinary enthusiasts worldwide. Harvested from the finest 100% single-origin Turkish olives, this premium EVOO offers a robust, peppery flavor profile while delivering unparalleled antioxidant benefits.

Olive Oil

Crafted through a meticulous cold-extraction process, Centenario's early harvest olives are pressed immediately to lock in maximum freshness and preserve the oil's high polyphenol content. The result is a USDA Organic, non-GMO, and vegan-friendly olive oil that serves as a true Mediterranean powerhouse. Whether drizzled over fresh salads, used to finish grilled vegetables, or even paired with sourdough bread for a morning wellness routine, Centenario EVOO transforms everyday meals into gourmet experiences.

"We wanted to unlock the Mediterranean secret in every drop," a spokesperson for Centenario shared. "By carefully selecting early harvest olives and protecting the liquid gold in UV-resistant glass bottles, we ensure that every customer experiences the prestige, purity, and health benefits of genuine Extra Virgin Olive Oil."

In addition to its culinary versatility, Centenario High Polyphenol Extra Virgin Olive Oil is highly sought after for its wellness advantages. Rich in antioxidants, regular consumption supports digestive health and overall well-being, reflecting the timeless benefits of the traditional Mediterranean diet. Packaged in a sophisticated 500ml bottle within a chic presentation box, Centenario EVOO makes an elegant gift for foodies, hosts, and anyone passionate about high-quality, organic ingredients.
