CLEARWATER, Fla. — August 2026 — Advanced Digital Automotive Group (ADAG) has announced its participation in the ASTA Tradeshow. The company will join automotive service professionals, shop owners, and industry vendors for an event dedicated to advancing the auto repair business.

The tradeshow brings together shops seeking to improve operations, explore new tools, and build relationships with vendors who understand the automotive repair industry. ADAG's presence gives the company direct access to shop owners who are actively seeking practical ways to grow their businesses. That includes strengthening their online visibility and reaching more local customers.

ADAG offers digital marketing services in Florida and across the country. Its services include search engine optimization, content writing, web development, and graphic design created specifically for automotive businesses.

Its clients include auto body repair shops, automotive mechanical repair businesses, auto detailing companies, paint protection specialists, and window tinting shops. The company helps these businesses rank at the top of Google search results for their target keywords.

Participating in the ASTA Tradeshow reflects ADAG's commitment to meeting auto repair professionals where they connect, learn, and evaluate potential business partners. The event

A Message From the Owner

"The ASTA Tradeshow gives us a chance to sit down with shop owners and talk about what's actually working in auto repair marketing today. It's one thing to talk about digital strategy online, but there's real value in meeting people face to face and hearing directly what they need," said Paul Donahue, CEO of Advanced Digital Automotive Group.
