LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Coachella Valley contender scores unanimous decision on MVP x TikTok LIVE event viewed by 1.2 million

COACHELLA VALLEY, CALIF. — August 21, 2026 — “MIGHTY” Brook Sibrian delivered a statement victory Friday night, defeating unbeaten MVP world-ranked prospect Lupita Medina by unanimous decision in an eight-round minimumweight bout at Pechanga Resort Casino in Temecula, California.

The fight was part of the Most Valuable Promotions (MVP) x TikTok LIVE event, which reached 1.2 million viewers on TikTok LIVE.

> “I want the biggest fights, I’ve worked for every opportunity I’ve gotten, and I’m ready to prove that I belong at the top of this division. This win was another step and I want to keep moving forward.”

Medina entered the bout with a perfect 12–0 record and three knockouts, making her debut on the MVP platform as one of the event’s undefeated prospects.

Sibrian ended that perfect record.

The Coachella Valley contender controlled the fight with relentless pressure, high-volume combinations and damaging power punching, attacking both the body and head while preventing Medina from establishing a comfortable rhythm.

After eight rounds, the judges scored the bout 77–75, 78–74 and 78–74, awarding Sibrian a clear unanimous decision and handing Medina the first loss of her professional career.

The victory moves Sibrian to 10–3 with four knockouts and adds another significant name to her résumé as she continues her pursuit of a world championship.

SIBRIAN PETITIONS FOR MAJOR RANKING MOVE

Following the victory, Sibrian's team has formally petitioned the major sanctioning bodies for significant upward movement in the world rankings, including consideration for a top-two position and, where applicable, consideration for the ranking position previously held by Medina.

At the time of the August 21 bout, Sibrian was ranked:

WBA — #7 Minimumweight
WBO — #7 Minimumweight
WBC — #13 Minimumweight

"We're not asking for a favor. We're asking for Brook's résumé to be evaluated on its merits," said Jose "Mega" Soto, Co-Manager & Trainer of Brook Sibrian. "Brook was already ranked before this fight. She stepped in against an undefeated opponent, beat her clearly, and handed her the first loss of her career. We believe that result deserves to be reflected in the rankings."

The petition comes as Sibrian looks to turn the momentum from her latest victory into the biggest opportunities available in the 105-pound division.

FROM THE COACHELLA VALLEY TO THE WORLD STAGE

Sibrian trains at Lee Espinoza Coachella Valley Boxing Club, a nonprofit boxing gym in Coachella that has served the community for 45 years.

A two-time USA Boxing National Champion before turning professional in 2023, Sibrian has competed internationally and captured the WBC International Light Flyweight Championship in 2025.

She also volunteers at Lee Espinoza Coachella Valley Boxing Club alongside her Co-Manager & Trainer, Jose "Mega" Soto, helping mentor the next generation of young boxers.

Now, after defeating an undefeated MVP prospect on a global digital platform, Sibrian is focused on what comes next.

“I want the biggest fights,” said Sibrian. “I’ve worked for every opportunity I’ve gotten, and I’m ready to prove that I belong at the top of this division. This win was another step, and now I want to keep moving forward.”

Keep climbing. Keep fighting. Become world champion.
