Joe Battaglia of REMAX Realty Specialists advances to public voting in the Best Real Estate Agent in Mississauga category of the 2026 Readers' Choice Awards.

Joe Battaglia of the Battaglia Team, REMAX Realty Specialists Inc., is on the ballot for Best Real Estate Agent in Mississauga in the 2026 Readers' Choice Awards presented by The Mississauga News.

MISSISSAUGA, ONTARIO, CANADA, September 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joe Battaglia, a Mississauga real estate agent with REMAX Realty Specialists Inc., has advanced to the public voting round of the 2026 Readers' Choice Awards in the Best Real Estate Agent in Mississauga category. The awards program is operated by Metroland Media Group Ltd. in partnership with Toronto Star Newspapers Limited, and recognizes local businesses based on community nominations and votes rather than on an industry panel or paid entry.

The Readers' Choice format is structured in stages. Residents first nominate businesses in their own community, and only the five most-nominated businesses in each category advance to the voting stage. Reaching the ballot therefore reflects the volume of unprompted nominations a business receives from the people it has served. Final results in each category are ranked Diamond, Platinum and Gold according to total votes. Metroland reports that the program draws more than 70,000 business nominations and over half a million votes annually across its participating Ontario communities.

The distinction carries particular weight in Mississauga, one of Canada's largest cities and among the most competitive residential brokerage markets in the Greater Toronto Area. The Toronto Regional Real Estate Board serves approximately 70,000 licensed brokers and salespersons in and around the Greater Toronto Area, and consumer-voted recognition has become one of the few signals available to buyers and sellers that is not generated by advertising spend. For homeowners weighing who to work with, awards decided by past clients and neighbours offer a form of local evidence that industry credentials alone do not provide.

Battaglia has been selling homes in the Mississauga market since 1995, spanning more than three decades of local market cycles. According to figures published by the Battaglia Team, the practice has completed more than 800 home sales representing over $526 million in transaction volume and has assisted more than 1,000 families. The team is consistently ranked the top-producing team at REMAX Realty Specialists, places within the top one per cent of all Realtors on the Toronto Regional Real Estate Board by units sold, and has been recognized among the Top 100 for REMAX Canada. The team's published performance data indicates listings sell 51 per cent faster than the market average, and it reports more than 125 verified five-star client reviews.

"Getting onto the ballot isn't something a business does on its own. It comes from clients who trusted us with one of the biggest decisions of their lives," said Joe Battaglia of the Battaglia Team. "A nomination like this is really a reflection of a community that keeps showing up for the people who serve it, and that is not something any amount of marketing can manufacture."
