

LuggageToShip.com Makes Shipping as Easy as Booking Travel Through Intelligent Automation

Customers can compare FedEx, UPS and DHL shipping options, book in advance, generate labels instantly and arrange door-to-door delivery through one platform.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LuggageToShip.com, an award-winning travel and delivery commerce platform powered by PayToMe.co, today announced the continued expansion of its intelligent travel and delivery commerce technology, helping consumers and businesses simplify the way they ship luggage, boxes, documents, sports equipment, and personal belongings around the world.

At a time when travelers can compare flights, hotels, rental cars, and vacation packages online in seconds, shipping luggage or personal items often remains fragmented and time-consuming. Customers typically visit multiple carrier websites, compare rates manually, re-enter shipment details, and navigate complex systems just to find the best option.

LuggageToShip.com was built to eliminate that friction.

Using intelligent automation and direct integrations with leading global carriers, the company enables customers to compare shipping options in real time, generate labels instantly, make secure payments, and track deliveries through a seamless user experience.

"Our vision is simple," said Mike Ulker, CEO of LuggageToShip.com. "Travelers can compare flights and hotels with a few clicks, yet sending luggage, boxes, golf clubs, skis, or important documents is often unnecessarily complicated. We believe shipping should be as simple as booking travel. LuggageToShip.com gives consumers and businesses one destination to compare options, choose the best service, and send items directly to where they need to go."

Unlike traditional delivery companies, LuggageToShip.com does not operate aircraft, trucks, or logistics networks. Instead, the company serves as an intelligent technology marketplace connecting customers with trusted global carriers while providing transparency, convenience, automation, secure payments, and dedicated customer support.

LuggageToShip.com serves travelers, families, students, seasonal residents, small businesses, corporate offices, and organizations shipping luggage, packages, boxes, business documents, office materials, golf clubs, skis, and personal belongings domestically and internationally. Through one easy-to-use platform, customers can compare real-time shipping rates from leading carriers including FedEx, UPS, and DHL, book shipments in advance, generate labels instantly, and arrange convenient door-to-door delivery. Whether customers need luggage delivery to a hotel, student shipping to a university, golf club shipping to a golf resort, ski shipping to a mountain destination, box shipping to storage, or express document delivery for business, LuggageToShip.com makes shipping as easy as booking travel.

Students and parents can ship luggage, boxes, books, electronics, clothing, and other necessities before arrival, reducing travel stress and avoiding unnecessary baggage fees. The company's storage services also provide flexibility for students moving between semesters, summer breaks, internships, and study-abroad programs.

Enhancing Travel Experiences

Travelers increasingly seek convenience and flexibility. LuggageToShip.com helps vacationers, families, golfers, skiers, business travelers, and international travelers move luggage and equipment ahead of arrival so they can travel more comfortably.

Travelers can send luggage ahead, ship golf clubs directly to golf resorts, arrange ski shipping to mountain destinations, and ship boxes directly from home to hotels, resorts, vacation rentals, universities, or storage facilities, eliminating excess baggage fees, airport hassles, baggage claim delays, and long check-in lines.

Hotels, resorts, and destination partners can also enhance guest experiences by offering seamless luggage, box, and sports equipment delivery services before, during, and after a stay.

Creating New Opportunities for Partners

LuggageToShip.com continues to expand strategic relationships with:

- Universities and student housing providers
- Hotels and hospitality groups

Secure Commerce and 24/7 Support

The company provides secure payment options, including convenient Text-to-Pay capabilities, helping customers complete purchases quickly and efficiently from virtually anywhere.

While technology powers the experience, customer service remains central to the company's mission. LuggageToShip.com offers dedicated support 24 hours a day, seven days a week, helping customers navigate every stage of the shipping process.

"Our goal is not simply to help people ship items," added Mike Ulker. "Our goal is to transform how consumers and businesses access delivery services. We envision a future where sending luggage, documents, sports equipment, business materials, and personal belongings is as easy and transparent as booking a flight or hotel online."

As global travel, commerce, and mobility continue to evolve, LuggageToShip.com is positioned to become a preferred destination for consumers and businesses seeking a faster, smarter, and more convenient way to send what matters.
