About Le Boat

With over 55 years of experience, Le Boat is a leader in modern houseboat rental vacations in Europe and Canada. The company operates a fleet of more than 900 boats across 33 cruising regions in eight European countries and Canada.

Le Boat expanded into Canada in 2018 and now operates a local fleet of 32 premier boats on Ontario's UNESCO-listed Rideau Canal and the historic Trent-Severn Waterway. No boating license or prior experience is required, and guests receive full training before departure.

Boats come with fully equipped kitchens, cozy cabins with private ensuite bathrooms, and range in size from one to five cabins, sleeping up to 12 people. With flexible itineraries, houseboat rentals are available for 3–6-night short breaks or 7–10+ night vacations. Premium features include bow and stern thrusters, sun decks, top-deck BBQs, fresh linens and fully equipped kitchens. Le Boat is also a proud Rainbow Registered company and is TICO Registered.

In 2026, Le Boat continues to expand its no-license-required boating holidays, launching new Liberty models in Europe and partnering with Groupe Beneteau to introduce 400 new Delphia boats (the Liberty Fleet) over the coming decade.
