"Shawnee is an important part of our service area, and we're focused on giving residents and local businesses a moving experience they can count on from start to finish," said Caleb Thurman, owner of Sunrise Moving and Packing. "Whether it's a local move across town or a long-distance relocation, our crews are trained to handle every detail with care, and we want every customer in this community to know they have a trustworthy option close to home."

Sunrise Moving and Packing's Shawnee services include local residential moving, long-distance moving, commercial and office relocation, and professional packing services. Customers can request a customized moving plan based on the size of their move, timeline, and budget, and the company provides full-service packing for those who want extra help preparing their belongings for transport.

The company is fully licensed and insured, and continues to expand its footprint across Missouri, Illinois, and Kansas. As part of its growth strategy, Sunrise Moving and Packing continues to invest in additional crews, updated equipment, and expanded local coverage to meet rising demand across the region.
