The PJI Law Team Celebrates Inc. 5000 Recognition

Founded in 2010 and headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia, PJI Law has continued to expand its reach while maintaining a strong focus on personalized, client-centered legal representation. The firm's growth is supported by a multidisciplinary practice serving clients in estate planning, probate and estate administration, civil litigation, and business law.

PJI Law's continued presence on the Inc. 5000 reflects more than financial growth. The firm attributes its momentum to its commitment to building lasting client relationships, understanding each client's unique circumstances, and providing practical legal guidance with clarity and integrity.

Our 244% growth over the last three years allows us to invest in our people, expand our capabilities, and serve more clients throughout Virginia.”

Paul J. Abraham, CEO of PJI Law

“We’re honored to be recognized by Inc. for the fourth consecutive year,” said Paul J. Abraham, CEO of PJI Law. “Reaching this milestone reflects the incredible work happening across our firm and the trust our clients continue to place in us. As we’ve grown, we’ve remained focused on something that has always been central to PJI Law: providing thoughtful, personal legal guidance while building relationships that last.”

Abraham continued, "Our 244% growth over the last three years allows us to invest in our people, expand our capabilities, and serve more clients throughout Virginia. We want PJI Law to be recognized not just for how we've grown, but for how we've helped elevate the standard of legal services everywhere we go."

The Inc. 5000 is widely recognized as a benchmark of entrepreneurial success, highlighting privately held companies that have demonstrated significant growth, innovation, and adaptability.
