

Lee Cossell & Feagley Community Mixer Draws 100+ Attendees for an Afternoon of Music, Food & Family Fun in Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, UNITED STATES, September 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- More than 100 people gathered in Indianapolis on August 29, 2026, for the recent Lee Cossell & Feagley Community Mixer, bringing local families, performers, volunteers, and neighbors together for an afternoon of music, food, entertainment, and community connection.

The strong turnout came even as a Mike Epps event took place in Indianapolis that same day. Community members still turned out in impressive numbers to support the mixer and spend time with friends, families, and others from throughout the area.

Local performers helped keep the afternoon lively, joined by a DJ who provided music throughout the event. Bounce houses gave younger guests plenty to do while parents and families enjoyed the opportunity to relax, eat, and connect with others in the community.

Food was available throughout the mixer, adding to the relaxed atmosphere and giving attendees another reason to stay, socialize, and enjoy the afternoon. A voter registration booth was also available for local residents who wanted information or assistance with registering to vote.

The Lee Cossell & Feagley Community Mixer was designed to offer more than entertainment. It created a welcoming setting where Indianapolis residents could spend time together, support local talent, meet neighbors, and enjoy an event open to people of different ages and backgrounds.

Lee Cossell & Feagley, LLP extends its appreciation to the local performers who shared their talents, the volunteers who contributed their time and energy, and the more than 100 community members whose attendance made the event such a success.

Community involvement has long been an important part of Lee Cossell & Feagley, LLP's connection to Indianapolis. Events such as the Lee Cossell & Feagley Community Mixer provide another opportunity to strengthen those relationships outside the courtroom and create spaces where people can simply come together and enjoy their community.

The firm looks forward to continuing its involvement in Indianapolis and supporting events that celebrate local talent, encourage community participation, and bring families and neighbors together.
