

Hannover House provides epic first look of scenes from JOLLY Christmas thriller

Teaser trailer of scenes from director Arthur G. Night's horror masterpiece hit the internet on Friday, Sept. 4 - and triggers a tsunami of viewers!

SACRAMENTO, AR, UNITED STATES, September 4, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Horror fans got an early Christmas present today, with a sneak peek of scenes from Arthur G. Night's incredible Christmas-thriller, JOLLY. The CGI-and-AI animated feature utilizes a full cast of actors for each role, with facial and motion capture performances driving the visuals to unprecedented, photo-realistic heights. The film will be released to theatres on December 11, 2026 from Scorpion House Productions, Hemdale Films and Hannover House (OTC: HHSE).

"This is a breakthrough film," said Eric Parkinson, CEO of Hannover House. "Arthur has started with an impressive and original story, and added the newest generation of visual technology and CGI-AI software. The result is a film that is true to the actor performances, yet visually at a $100-million dollar appearance. We think audiences are going to love this 'JOLLY' feature, and that it will become the next big horror hit," he concluded.
