H&S Real Estate Expands Its Global Excellence Platform Through Motorsport Sponsorship

DUBAI, DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, September 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dubai, UAE – H&S Real Estate is proud to expand its involvement in British motorsport, supporting competitive racing and the pursuit of performance at the highest level.

Kam Tunio, Professional Racing Driver and his Racing Car

Through its motorsport sponsorship, H&S supports professional racing within the Classic Touring Cars championship under the British Automobile Racing Club (BARC), with Kam Tunio representing the partnership on the circuit. With more than 12 years of competitive motorsport experience, Kam's journey reflects the mindset behind high performance: relentless preparation, precision under pressure and the constant pursuit of improvement.

"With the support and backing of H&S, we have been able to build the right foundations to compete at the highest level. Having the right people, preparation and support around the team has played an important role in achieving the results we have seen this season." – Kam Tunio, Professional Racing Driver.

Since H&S became involved in mid-2025, the sponsorship has helped elevate Kam's racing program, strengthening the preparation, technical support and operational capabilities required to compete at the highest level. Throughout the 2026 season, this commitment has translated into strong results, with Kam currently leading the championship and securing multiple victories across renowned UK circuits.

"In everyday driving, you may only use around 20% of a car's capability, but in motor racing we never use less than 90% of the engine's power. Every race requires complete focus, preparation and precision. Between events, every component is inspected and analyzed to ensure we are ready to perform at the highest level." – Kam Tunio, Professional Racing Driver.

“The principles that drive performance on the race circuit are equally relevant in business. Whether in motorsport or real estate, success comes from preparation, precision, strategic thinking and the discipline to continuously improve. In a highly competitive market, pushing boundaries and executing with consistency are what create lasting results. These values have been at the core of H&S’s journey and continue to shape how we approach every opportunity.” – Saad Haq, CEO of H&S-Haqsons Group.

This philosophy has shaped H&S’s journey since 2015, building a reputation as one of the UAE’s most awarded real estate brokerages, with 150+ awards and recognitions from leading developers and UAE institutions. Through continuous ambition, innovation and commitment to excellence, H&S continues to create meaningful partnerships and experiences that extend beyond property.

For H&S, supporting motorsport reflects a wider commitment to excellence beyond real estate – championing individuals, partnerships and pursuits driven by ambition.

Building on its connection with world-class sporting experiences, including its association with Ferrari during the Abu Dhabi Grand Prix, H&S continues to align with platforms that reflect performance, ambition and global excellence.

As the racing season continues, H&S looks forward to following Kam’s journey towards his championship ambitions and celebrating the dedication behind every achievement – both on and off the track.
