Retirement Planning For Pastors

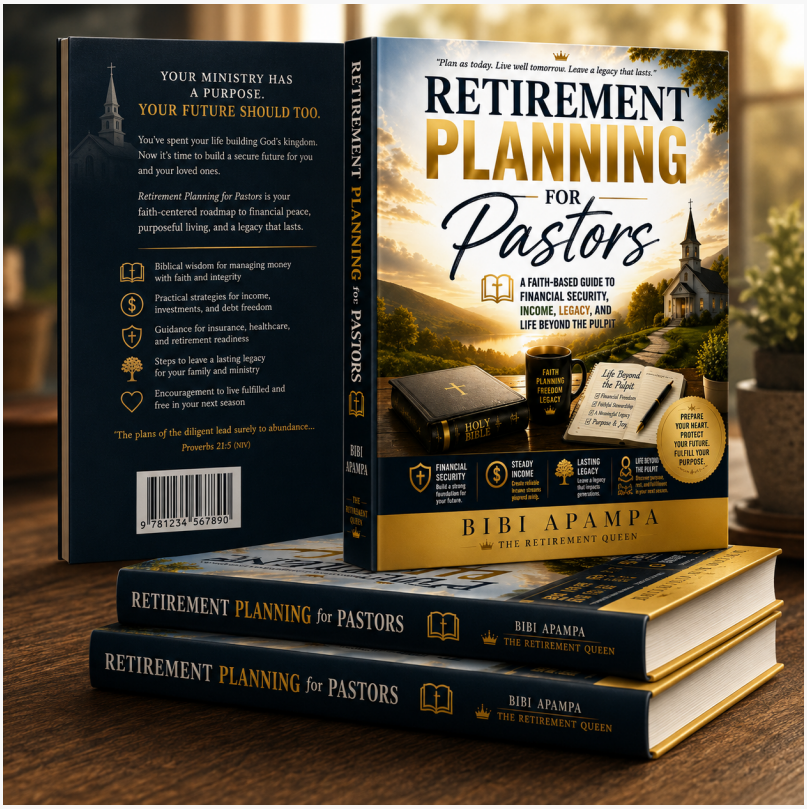

WATFORD, HERTFORDSHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, September 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Retirement Planning for Pastors by Bibi Apampa, The Retirement Queen®, introduces a practical, faith-based approach to preparing for financial security, sustainable retirement income and life beyond active ministry.

Retirement planning for pastors requires more than preparing for the end of a ministry salary. It requires a strategy for sustainable income, housing, health, purpose and legacy.

Recognizing the unique retirement needs of pastors and faith leaders, Bibi Apampa, The Retirement Queen®, has released her new book, Retirement Planning for Pastors, a practical resource designed to help ministers prepare for a secure, purposeful and fulfilling retirement. A retirement coach, retirement wealth strategist, international keynote speaker and author, Apampa is establishing herself as a specialist voice in retirement planning for pastors, with particular attention to women in ministry and female pastors.

Introducing the PASTOR™ Retirement Framework
At the heart of the book is the PASTOR™ Retirement Framework, a holistic retirement planning framework created specifically for pastors, ministers and faith leaders. It recognizes that a successful retirement requires more than financial preparation—it requires a plan for money, health, purpose, relationships and legacy.

PASTOR™ focuses on six essential areas:
P — Pension | A — Accommodation | S — Sustainable Income | T — Two to Five Additional Income Streams | O — Ownership | R — Risk Protection
Together, these elements provide a practical financial roadmap for preparing for the transition from ministry income to sustainable retirement income.
