FREESTYLE DIGITAL MEDIA RELEASES MILITARY DRAMA “THE MILITIA”

Veteran TV Actor Michael Broderick Stars in New Military Drama; Launches on U.S. VOD Platforms Starting September 8, 2026

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Freestyle Digital Media, the digital film distribution division of Byron Allen’s Allen Media Group, proudly announces the release of the military drama feature THE MILITIA -- now available on U.S. digital HD internet, DVD, cable, and satellite platforms on September 8, 2026.

> “THE MILITIA is a cautionary tale about the dark places that blind allegiance can take us. We can all agree that actions have consequences and sometimes the ends do not justify the means.”
> Filmmaker Dylan King Welter

THE MILITIA tells the story of Daniel Pierce, a dangerously driven teenager who wants nothing more than to join the local militia and stand up to the government just like his father. But when his dad goes into hiding after skipping bail, Daniel recruits his friends to form their own group in a reckless attempt to confront the local sheriff and rescue him.

Written and directed by Dylan King Welter, THE MILITIA was produced by Bruno Albuquerque. Featured actors include: Sam Williamson (‘Daniel Pierce’), Michael Broderick (‘Lee Pierce’) and Luke Stratte-McClure (‘Sheriff Webb’).

“THE MILITIA is a cautionary tale about the dark places that blind allegiance can take us. It’s a haunting look into a world where might is right and therefore how could harm be wrong?” said filmmaker Dylan King Welter. “The aim was to make a discussion piece where no matter your political leanings we can all agree that actions have consequences and sometimes the ends do not justify the means.”

Freestyle Digital Media negotiated a deal to acquire THE MILITIA directly with the filmmakers and Dances With Films.
