

MG Ship celebrates Morning Global's 40th anniversary with double rewards and free trial of AI supply chain intelligence

Celebrate Morning Global's 40th anniversary with MG Ship: Get 2 free months of AI supply chain tools and $4,000 in international shipping through Oct 31.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/

-- MG Ship, a leading Asia-based logistics technology and supply chain intelligence platform, today announced a special joint promotion with its parent company, Morning Global Group, in celebration of Morning Global's 40th Anniversary.

By bridging East and West, we empower businesses with enterprise-grade supply chain intelligence, end-to-end visibility, and advanced logistics to navigate today's volatile economic landscape.”

Suki Cheung, CEO of MG Ship

Founded in Hong Kong, Morning Global Group has grown over four decades into a leading international courier, postal, and cross-border logistics provider. To commemorate this significant milestone, MG Ship and Morning Global are launching an exclusive Double Rewards Campaign for newly registered MG Ship customers from now until 31 October 2026.

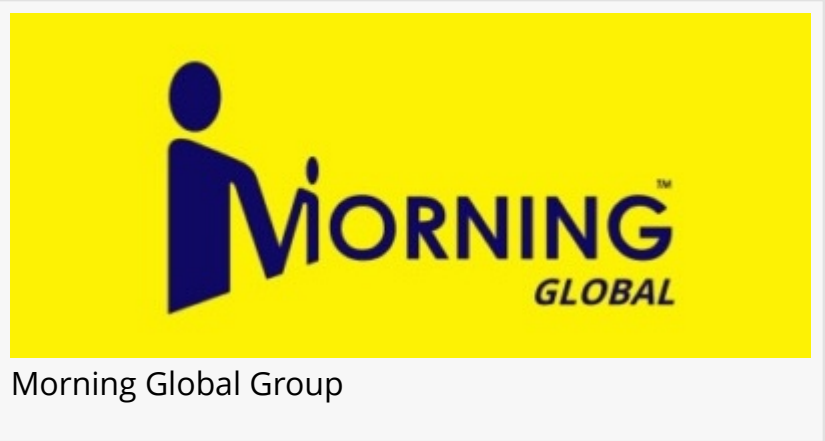

Double Rewards Package:

i) 2 Months of Complimentary Access to MG Ship's AI-Powered Supply Chain Platform

Participants will receive full access to MG Ship's advanced logistics intelligence platform, featuring:

- + End-to-end multimodal shipment visibility
- + Predictive analytics with up to 99% ETA accuracy
- + Automated disruption and delay alerts
- + AI-powered Route Optimization to identify more efficient transportation options

- + Carrier Performance Analytics and Carrier Recommendation Engine to help businesses select the most reliable and cost-effective logistics partners
- + Integration with more than 1,000 carriers and major ERP, OMS, WMS, and POS systems

ii) $4,000 Worth of Complimentary International Express & Postal Shipping

Customers will enjoy 10 complimentary parcel shipments (up to 30kg each), exclusively sponsored by Morning Global Group, providing immediate access to reliable international delivery solutions and helping businesses expand globally with confidence.

"For 40 years, Morning Global has helped businesses navigate the complexities of international logistics," said Alex Li, CEO of Morning Global Group. "Today, supply chain success requires far more than shipment tracking. By combining Morning Global's extensive logistics network with MG Ship's AI-driven predictive visibility, route optimization, and carrier recommendation capabilities, businesses can proactively reduce transportation costs, improve service performance, and make smarter supply chain decisions. We are proud to make these capabilities more accessible as we celebrate this important milestone."

"This campaign spans key global markets, including the United States, the United Kingdom, Italy, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, the Philippines, Vietnam, India, Mainland China, Hong Kong SAR, Macau SAR, Taiwan, and South Korea. By bridging businesses across East and West, we are strengthening the global logistics ecosystem and empowering SMEs and global shippers with enterprise-grade supply chain intelligence, end-to-end visibility, and advanced logistics solutions to navigate today's increasingly volatile economic landscape," said Suki Cheung, CEO of MG Ship.

Promotion Details:

Campaign Period: Now until 31 October 2026

Eligibility: Exclusive to newly registered MG Ship account holders

Offer Includes: Two months of complimentary platform access plus up to USD 4,000 in international shipping benefits

As supply chains continue to face rising transportation costs, capacity constraints, and service disruptions, businesses are increasingly turning to data-driven decision-making to stay competitive. This limited-time anniversary promotion offers shippers, e-commerce brands, retailers and logistics providers an opportunity to experience how AI-powered route optimization, carrier recommendations, and predictive supply chain intelligence can improve efficiency and reduce logistics costs.
