Lone Peak Law Offers Trusted Family Law Representation in Lehi, Utah

Sierra Hansen leads Lone Peak Law to deliver compassionate, strategic advocacy for families navigating divorce, custody, and support challenges across Utah.

LEHI, UT, UNITED STATES, September 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Family law disputes rarely come down to legal questions alone. There's usually a home, a set of kids' schedules, and a family's financial future riding on the outcome. Lone Peak Law, a family law firm based in Lehi, Utah, was built around that reality — offering clients strategic, steady representation through some of the most difficult transitions a family can face.

Lone Peak Law — trusted family law representation in Lehi, Utah.

The firm is led by attorney Sierra Hansen, who brings a background in prosecution into her family law practice. That combination shapes how she approaches even the most contentious cases: for anyone searching for a Divorce Attorney Lehi clients can rely on, Hansen is known for handling asset division, alimony, and high-conflict disputes with a level head, whether the case resolves through mediation or ends up in front of a judge.

> Every family in Lehi deserves clear guidance and steady advocacy through divorce, custody, and child support matters that put children first."

Custody matters call for a different kind of expertise, and it's here that Hansen's background stands out. As a Court-Approved Private Guardian Ad Litem, she has firsthand knowledge of how Utah courts weigh a child's best interests — insight that few attorneys bring to the table. Parents looking for a Child Custody Lawyer Lehi can trust to put their kids first often turn to Hansen for exactly this reason. She works closely with each family to build parenting plans that hold up over time and keep children out of the crossfire.

Money matters just as much as custody when a family is going through a transition, and Lone Peak Law treats it that way. Clients searching for a Child Support Lawyer Lehi will find straightforward guidance through Utah's child support guidelines — income calculations, modifications, and enforcement — so support arrangements end up fair and sustainable for everyone involved.

Hansen's commitment to families doesn't stop at the courtroom door. She currently serves as Board Chair for the Children's Service Society, an ongoing role in Utah's child welfare community that shapes how she approaches every case that crosses her desk. Lone Peak Law offers a range of service levels, from full representation to collaborative solutions to document assistance, so families can find an option that fits both their situation and their budget.

Lone Peak Law serves clients throughout Lehi, Utah County, Salt Lake County, and across the state of Utah. Those looking to schedule a consultation with a Family Law Attorney in Lehi Utah can visit the Lone Peak Law website or reach out to the office directly.

Attorney Sierra Hansen brings prosecutorial experience and Guardian Ad Litem insight to every family law case she takes on.

Navigating a divorce decree takes more than paperwork — it takes an advocate who protects your interests every step of the way.
