

Rockville, MD Family Law Firm Announces Latest Winner of Jewish Heritage Scholarship

ROCKVILLE, MD, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Diamant Gerstein, LLC is excited to share that Allen Waldman has been selected as the recipient of the firm's Jewish Heritage Scholarship for the Fall 2026 semester. The $1,000 scholarship supports Jewish students who have a demonstrated history of strong leadership.

Allen currently studies law at The George Washington University Law School. As a first-generation university student, Allen hopes to build a career advocating for people in need. His academic excellence and professional goals reflect the qualities the Jewish Heritage Scholarship was created to recognize. Diamant Gerstein, LLC is proud to support Allen in his continuing education as he pursues a future in the legal profession.

To qualify for the scholarship, applicants must maintain a minimum 3.5 GPA and be presently enrolled in undergraduate or graduate studies. Students must also submit either a 750-word essay or a three-minute video addressing the scholarship prompt. Students interested in learning more can visit <https://www.dgalawfirm.com/scholarship> for full details. Applications for the Spring 2027 semester are now open, with a submission deadline of January 6, 2027.
