APOLLO Round Touch Table

- True round LCD multi-touch display
- Ten simultaneous touch points
- High-resolution with 500 nits brightness
- Robust metal floor stand

The round interactive Multi-Touch Table APOLLO stands out with its truly round 60x60 cm (23,6") touchscreen display, offering a seamless interactive experience from every angle. Its slim design pairs a high-resolution LCD panel with a capacitive touchscreen layer housed in a sturdy metal floor stand, combining durability with contemporary aesthetics.

With ten touch points, APOLLO enables a true multi-touch experience. Users can swipe through media, explore 3D models, compare products, and enjoy multimedia content, all rendered with crisp visuals and smooth touch responsiveness.
