

Tehya Travel Introduces Signature Journeys for Complex, Experience-Led Luxury Travel

Luxury travel advisory introduces flexible journey frameworks across Japan, Southern Africa, Europe, the Mediterranean, and the Caribbean.

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES,
September 10, 2026 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Tehya Travel, the Chicago-based luxury travel advisory founded by Arturo Gomez and Zachary Zisook, today introduced Signature Journeys, a collection of journey frameworks representing the styles of travel the advisory plans at its highest level.

Signature Journeys are deliberately not packages. There are no fixed departure dates, no set group sizes, and no one-size itineraries. Each framework is a starting point, a proven journey shape that Tehya Travel then builds around the specific client, whether the trip runs four days or more than a month.

The initial collection includes: Japan beyond the familiar, pairing Tokyo and Kyoto with ryokan stays and quieter regions; Southern Africa, combining Cape Town with safari; the Mediterranean by land and sea, connecting Italy, Greece, and the Croatian coast through villas and yacht time; the European family summer, built around a city, a villa, and the coast; and the Caribbean, Mexico, and Latin America, the advisory's home region and deepest area of expertise.

"The question isn't whether a trip is too complicated to plan yourself," said Arturo Gomez, Co-Founder of Tehya Travel. "It's whether your time is better spent managing logistics or living the trip. Our clients have decided what their time is worth. We take it from there."

Beyond planning and judgment, Tehya Travel brings clients access: preferred rates, amenities, and recognition at hotels, resorts, and villas worldwide that typically exceed what travelers can secure on their own. Journeys are executed by Tehya's in-house team and, where a destination calls for it, through the advisory's global network of trusted partners, including private aviation and yacht arrangements where the itinerary warrants.

Signature Journeys are available now. Travelers can begin a conversation through the Tehya Travel website.
