Lake Austin Spa Resort & Facial Plastic Surgery of Austin Launch Restorative Retreat Partnership for Post Recovery Care

Dr. Yula Indeyeva Named Medical Director of Lake Austin Spa Resort's First Dedicated Post-Procedure Recovery Experience for Cosmetic Surgery Patients

Situated on a constant level lake in the Texas Hill Country, Lake Austin Spa Resort is a 40-room oasis of self care and renewal.

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Lake Austin Spa Resort, the award-winning destination spa on the shores of Lake Austin in the Texas Hill Country, and Facial Plastic Surgery of Austin, led by double board-certified facial plastic surgeon Dr. Yula Indeyeva, MD, is pleased to announce an exclusive partnership bringing together a luxury wellness retreat to create a restorative post-surgical experience exclusively for Dr. Indeyeva's patients.

Lake Austin Spa Resort's first dedicated post-procedure recovery partnership, The Recovery Stay Exclusive, offers a private, restorative retreat created for Dr. Indeyeva's patients following cosmetic procedures. Guests can recover in lakeside accommodations while receiving three chef-prepared meals daily, optional in-room dining, personalized concierge assistance, peaceful spaces for rest and reflection, and transportation. Gentle wellness programming may also be available when appropriate and approved by the patient's physician. As part of this partnership, Dr. Indeyeva has been named Medical Director for Lake Austin Spa Resort, bringing her expertise in facial plastic surgery, natural-looking rejuvenation, and medical-grade skincare to the spa.

"This partnership exemplifies our office commitment to providing our patients with exceptional care before, during, and after their procedures," said Dr. Yula Indeyeva, founder of Facial Plastic Surgery of Austin. "Lake Austin Spa Resort's holistic approach to wellness aligns perfectly with our philosophy of elegant, sophisticated care."

In addition, this partnership introduces Skinbetter Science as the premier skincare brand selected by Lake Austin Spa Resort for its innovative formulations, clinically substantiated results, and commitment to advancing skin health. Recommended by aesthetic professionals and supported by rigorous scientific research, Skinbetter Science delivers comprehensive solutions designed to improve the visible appearance of aging, discoloration, texture, hydration, and overall skin quality.

Dr. Yula Indeyeva has been named Medical Director of Lake Austin Spa Resort's first dedicated post-procedure recovery experience for cosmetic surgery patients.

Skinbetter Science products will be incorporated into five customized treatments—the Renewal Facial, Recovery Facial, LakeHouse Custom Facial, Pre-Op Surgical Skin Conditioning Renewing Ritual, and Post-Op Surgical Recovery Ritual—created in collaboration with Dr. Indeyeva to provide each guest with a personalized, results-driven experience that beautifully unites medical-grade skincare with the resort's holistic approach to wellness.

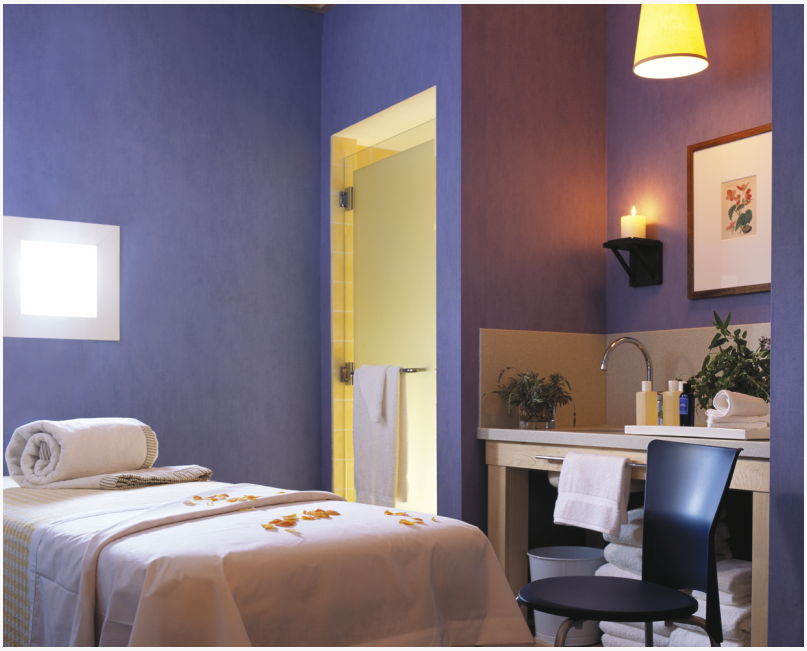

"True Wellness is about feeling confident and vibrant from the inside out. Empowering our guests to look and feel their absolute best at every stage of their journey," said JoAnn Lenhardt, General Manager of Lake Austin Spa Resort.
