ServiceMaster Restoration by Zaba Named Winner of Chicago Star Small Business Award

Chicago-based restoration company recognized for resilience, innovation, and community contribution.

ServiceMaster by Zaba honored with the Chicago Star Small Business Award by City Treasurer Melissa Conyears-Ervin.

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- ServiceMaster Restoration by Zaba has been named a winner of the Chicago Star Small Business Award, an honor presented by Chicago City Treasurer Melissa Conyears-Ervin to recognize outstanding small businesses that contribute to the vitality and economic strength of Chicago's neighborhoods.

The company was nominated over the summer of 2025 and selected through a rigorous review process. ServiceMaster by Zaba was formally honored during a special recognition ceremony at the annual BUILDING WEALTH TODAY FOR TOMORROW (BWTT) expo on Saturday, October 4, 2025.

> We are deeply honored by this recognition from the City Treasurer's Office. This award reflects our team's dedication and commitment to serving Chicago families and businesses when they need us most."
> Diana Rodriguez-Zaba, President of ServiceMaster Restoration by Zaba

The Chicago Star Award highlights the remarkable contributions of small businesses across Chicago and invites the public to nominate local establishments that enhance the vibrancy of their communities. Small businesses provide nearly half of all jobs in Chicago and play an essential role in the city's economic well-being.

As part of the award, ServiceMaster by Zaba will receive resources to help with their visibility, marketing, and overall success. The company will also gain access to exclusive business workshops facilitated by the City Treasurer's Office community partners, covering essential topics such as financial management, digital marketing, and growth strategies.
