

Miller Industries and Commercial Fleet Financing Launch Miller Finance Solutions

Miller Industries debuts new equipment financing option for the towing and recovery industry.

CHATTANOOGA, TN, UNITED STATES,
September 15, 2026 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Miller Industries, Inc. (NYSE: MLR), The World's Largest Manufacturer of Towing and Recovery Equipment®, and Commercial Fleet Financing, Inc. (CFF), a leading nationwide provider of commercial vehicle and equipment financing, today announced the launch of Miller Finance Solutions.

Miller Industries Inc. debuts new finance program.

Built specifically for the towing and recovery industry, Miller Finance Solutions brings together Miller Industries' market-leading equipment and dealer network with CFF's financing expertise, expanded credit capabilities and purpose-built technology platform.

The program is designed to make financing towing and recovery equipment faster, easier and more competitive. Through a streamlined application and approval process, customers will have access to a broader range of credit options, flexible financing structures, discounted program rates and payment options designed to support the unique needs of towing businesses.

Miller Finance Solutions will help towing operators move from equipment selection to financing and delivery with greater speed and confidence. Whether a customer is purchasing a first truck, replacing aging equipment or expanding an established fleet, the program provides a financing experience built around the realities of operating and growing a towing company.

"At Miller Industries, our commitment has always been to provide towing and recovery professionals with the highest-quality equipment and the support they need to succeed," said Vince Tiano, Vice President of Miller Industries. "Through Miller Finance Solutions, we're making it easier for customers to access the financing they need to invest in their businesses and acquire the equipment necessary to grow and serve their customers more effectively."

“This is much more than a traditional equipment financing program,” said Erik Wong, President of Commercial Fleet Financing. “We have built a dedicated platform around Miller Industries, expanded our credit options and put competitive rates and payment solutions in place to help more towing companies acquire the equipment they need. By combining Miller’s industry-leading products and distribution network with CFF’s technology and financing capabilities, we are creating a better equipment-buying experience for towing professionals nationwide.”
