Elephant Insurance Named to Forbes' "America's Best Insurance Companies" List for 2027

This marks the second time Elephant has earned recognition on the prestigious list

RICHMOND, VA, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Elephant Insurance, a Richmond, Virginia-based insurer offering auto, home, renters, life and umbrella coverage, has been named to Forbes' "America's Best Insurance Companies" list for 2027. This marks the second time Elephant has earned a spot on the list, having first been recognized in 2023.

Forbes partnered with market research firm Statista to compile the list, surveying thousands of U.S. insurance customers on their overall satisfaction and likelihood to recommend their provider to friends and family. Respondents also rated insurers across several subdimensions, including financial advice, customer service, price-to-performance ratio, transparency, digital services, and claims/benefit handling. A loyalty score, based on how long customers have stayed with their insurer and how likely they are to continue, was also factored into the rankings.
