SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES,
September 10, 2026 /
EINPresswire.com/ -- BluPeak has been recognized as one of American Banker's Best Credit Unions to Work For in 2026, an annual ranking that celebrates credit unions across the country for creating positive workplace cultures and strong employee experiences.

American Banker judged credit unions based on two questionnaires: one of the employers and another of the employees. The first survey asked credit union executives about their workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems, and demographics. The second asked workers a wide range of questions about their own experience, from their training and development to their degree of satisfaction with company benefits.

"Being recognized as one of American Banker's Best Credit Unions to Work For is an incredible accomplishment, but what makes it especially meaningful is knowing that our employees helped make it possible," said Todd Tharp, President & CEO of BluPeak. "Their feedback reflects the culture we are committed to creating every day — one where people feel valued, appreciated and connected to a shared purpose. We are proud of this recognition and even more proud of the people who made it possible."

The findings come at a time when many Americans are experiencing dissatisfaction with their jobs. "That's what makes this recognition so special, as it affirms BluPeak employees' confidence in BluPeak's leadership and strategic direction, reflects positive sentiment about the work environment, and highlights the strong relationships employees have with their supervisors," said Gloria Nunes, VP, Chief People Officer at BluPeak. "These experiences are closely connected to BluPeak's broader culture and purpose, working together to support Members, strengthen communities and support access to clean water."

Following its recognition as one of America's Best Credit Unions in 2026 by Newsweek, this latest honor further reflects BluPeak's commitment to delivering a strong experience for both its members and employees.
