Designed for developers and investors seeking the next big thing, the TSN “Storage Redefined Masterclass” gives entrepreneurs expert guidance to accelerate success in self-storage’s fastest-growing subsectors.

- Flex Space: Explore the convergence of light industrial, warehouse and storage space. Understand design for versatile tenancy and mixed-use revenue streams.

Attendees must register by Oct. 31, 2026, to save hundreds with the early bird discount of $750. Registration includes breakfast, lunch, all learning materials and a guided tour of a Class-A RV and boat storage facility.
