

Digital Delta Symposium & Expo Brings Industry Leaders Together to Explore Innovation

Event explores how digital twins, AI, and digital transformation are reshaping the future

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- The Digital Delta Symposium & Expo takes place September 17 at the JW Marriott Houston Downtown. The event brings together leaders from infrastructure, energy, technology, academia, and government to explore how digital twins, AI, and digital transformation are reshaping the future.

Hosted by Digi Twin Global, LLC and supported by title sponsors Louisiana Future Energy and NSF FUEL, the symposium is a signature event of Houston Energy and Climate Week and features hands-on training, executive perspectives, case studies, and networking opportunities focused on real-world implementation and innovation.

Attendees can benefit from learning digital twin design, architecture, and implementation strategies, earning four professional development hours, attending a virtual crash course live, and exploring AI, digital transformation, and data-driven infrastructure management.

Incentives to attend also include opportunities to network and engage with industry experts, executives, and pioneers, discover emerging workforce development opportunities, connect with vendors showcasing cutting-edge digital solutions, and participate in discussions shaping the future of energy, infrastructure, resilience, and sustainability.

Additional sponsors and event partners include Bentley, SLB, CRC Global Solutions, Bowman, Worley, Turner Industries, ACEC, Amazon RME, ASCE, Baker Hughes, EcoGlobe, Forte & Tablada,
