Airtripmaker Expands Chicago Gateway, Launches Discounted Airfares from Chicago to India Flights

New route coverage and limited-time promotional fares make it easier and more affordable for Chicago travelers to connect to major Indian cities

GERMANTOWN, MD, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Airtripmaker, a travel booking platform specializing in international air travel, today announced the expansion of its Chicago (ORD) flight offerings to India, adding broader route coverage and a new slate of discounted fares for travelers flying between Chicago and major Indian cities including New Delhi, Mumbai, Ahmedabad, Hyderabad, Bengaluru, Chennai, Kolkata, and Amritsar.

The expansion comes in response to steadily rising demand from the Chicago area's large and growing Indian-American community, as well as business travelers, students, and families seeking more direct and affordable options to reach India from Illinois. With the new fare program, Airtripmaker is offering discounted pricing across nonstop and one-stop itineraries on a wide range of partner airlines, with savings available on Economy, Premium Economy, and Business Class bookings.

Broader Coverage from a Key Southern Hub

Chicago International Airport has long served as one of the busiest connecting hubs in the United States, and Airtripmaker's expanded India offerings are designed to take full advantage of that connectivity. Travelers departing ORD can now access one-stop and select nonstop routings to India's major metro airports, along with connections onward to secondary cities such as Pune, Jaipur, Vadodara, Chandigarh, and more — destinations that previously required more complex, multi-leg planning.

“Chicago has become one of the fastest-growing origin markets for India travel in our network,” said a company spokesperson. “This expansion is about giving travelers from Illinois the same level of choice, transparency, and value that our customers on the coasts already enjoy — whether they're flying home to see family, traveling for business, or planning their first trip to India.”

"We're not just adding more routes — we're focused on making sure every itinerary out of Chicago comes with fare transparency, flexible cabin options, and real savings, not just the lowest advertised price with hidden costs attached."

Discounted Deals Across Every Cabin Class

As part of the launch, Airtripmaker is rolling out limited-time promotional pricing for travelers booking Chicago-to-India itineraries, including:

 Economy Class fare reductions on popular one-stop routings via major Middle Eastern and European hubs
 Premium Economy discounts for travelers seeking extra comfort on long-haul sectors without the full Business Class price tag
 Business Class promotional pricing, including lie-flat seating options on select carriers
 Group and family booking discounts for travelers coordinating multiple tickets on the same itinerary
 Flexible date search tools to help travelers find the lowest fares across a full calendar month

These fares are available for booking directly through Airtripmaker's website, where travelers can compare cabin options, baggage policies, and layover details across airlines before booking.

Airtripmaker's expanded fare and route coverage is intended to meet that demand with more predictable pricing and a wider set of options for travelers planning trips around weddings, festivals, academic calendars, and business travel.

“Travel between Chicago and India isn't just about visiting family anymore — it's business trips, it's students heading to and from college, it's people attending weddings and festivals on tight timelines,” the spokesperson added. “Our job is to make sure cost isn't the barrier that gets in the way of those trips.”

Availability

The discounted Chicago-to-India fares are available for routes from “Chicago to Mumbai Flights” “Chicago to Ahmedabad Flights” and “Chicago to Hyderabad Flights” booking now through Airtripmaker.com, with promotional pricing. Travelers can search by city pair, cabin class, and travel dates to view current fare options and route details.
