After shooting the film last Fall in the breathtaking Calaveras County region of California's Sierra Nevada, it will bring the film to Catalina FF for its festival debut. Aaron Dominguez will join Joshua B. Porter, Kevin and Karyn Yarris at the Catalina FF Awards Red Carpet. I'VE GOT YOU will then premiere at Show Low Film Festival in October and Rehoboth Beach International Film Festival in November.
Cirillo, Dominguez, Popovich, Campbell, and Milligan are represented by Alexander White Agency (AWA). August Kammer and Meghan Shankar of TalentWorks represent Johnson. Popovich is also repped by Vault Entertainment, Campbell by Katie McComb Management, Milligan by Zero Gravity, and Johnson by 42. Casting handled by Farrah West.

"We are thrilled to finally share this beautiful film with audiences," explained director/producer Joshua B. Porter. "Each of these artists brings their own unique background, perspective, and incredible depth of talent to the project."

Synopsis: I'VE GOT YOU is a romantic drama that follows two brothers, Dominguez (Tyler) and Cirillo (Kyle), on a journey to discover their purpose in life. Along the way, they find themselves and, unexpectedly, love.

I'VE GOT YOU is a deeply moving story of love, loss, hope, redemption, and the enduring power of family. Produced by Karyn ("BLOWBACK") and Kevin Yarris under their Wildwood Entertainment banner, the film promises to deliver an emotionally rich and visually stunning cinematic experience. With its picturesque setting and heartfelt narrative, I'VE GOT YOU is poised to captivate audiences and make a lasting impact on the indie film landscape.
