

BIXOLON Introduces the XM5-30 3-inch Mobile Label Printer

SOUTH KOREA, September 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BIXOLON Co., Ltd., a global manufacturer of Mobile, Label and POS printers, today announced the launch of the XM5-30, its new 3-inch (80 mm) mobile label printer equipped with an LCD display. Designed for outdoor and field environments, the XM5-30 combines durability with mobile printing performance in a compact design.

3-Inch Mobile Label Printer, XM5-30

The XM5-30 delivers print speeds of up to 6 ips (152 mm/sec) at 203 dpi resolution for both liner and linerless media, including BIXOLON's B-linerless™. Utilising Smart Media Detection™, the printer automatically identifies gap, black mark, and short-length media. In addition, users can switch to linerless media by replacing the standard media kit with the Linerless Kit.

The XM5-30 features a rugged design with a double-molded, scratch-resistant cover and a metal bottom housing. It withstands drops of up to 2.5 m (8.2 ft.) and 1,500 tumbles from 1 m (3.2 ft.), with MIL-STD-810G testing for drop and vibration and an IP54 rating for water and dust protection. Weighing 630 g with the battery, its lightweight form supports convenient one-handed operation in the field.

For mobile operations, the printer offers a standard 3400 mAh Smart Battery and an optional 6800 mAh high-capacity Smart Battery. The hardware also features SoftAP for mobile setup, Easy Bluetooth Pairing™ via NFC, and simultaneous Bluetooth® and dual-band WLAN connectivity with WPA3 security.

The XM5-30 is compatible with SLCS™, BPL-Z™, BPL-C™, and BXL/POS™, enabling integration with customers' existing systems. With 512 MB LPDDR SDRAM and 512 MB Flash memory, the printer supports data processing and storage for fonts, graphics, firmware, and tools.

"In today's industrial and logistics environments, field workers need hardware that combines durability with operational intelligence,” states John Kim, Marketing Director, BIXOLON. “We are pleased to offer our customers a mobile printing solution that supports reliable operation in demanding conditions.”
