Reaching 2,400 five-star reviews on Google tells us our crews are consistently delivering the level of care we promise, move after move.”

Constantine Shapovalov

service residential and commercial moving company based in Miami, today announced that it has surpassed 2,400 reviews on Google, with an average rating of 4.9 out of 5 stars. The milestone reflects the company's ongoing commitment to careful, professional, and reliable moving services throughout South Florida.

Pro Movers Miami provides local moving, long-distance moving, commercial moving, and packing and storage solutions for residential and commercial customers across Miami-Dade County and beyond. The company is fully licensed (US DOT 2855891, MC 956262) and holds an A rating with the Better Business Bureau.

The growing volume of five-star feedback highlights recurring themes from customers, including professionalism, speed, and careful handling of belongings during both local and long-distance moves. Many reviewers specifically credit individual moving crews and consultants for going above and beyond during what is often a stressful day for customers.

Pro Movers Miami attributes the milestone to its focus on trained moving crews, transparent pricing, and responsive customer service from the first quote through move-in day. The company continues to invest in crew training and additional equipment to keep pace with demand across the Miami market.

Customers can request a free moving quote or view additional customer reviews on the company's website.
