

Joseph Merritt & Company Announces Sale of Equipment & Supply Division to Merritt Equipment Solutions

ROCKY HILL, CT, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joseph Merritt & Company, a long-standing provider of printing, scanning, and document management services, today announced the sale of its Equipment and Supply Division to Merritt Equipment Solutions, a newly established company owned and operated by longtime Joseph Merritt & Company employee Oliver Paine.

The opportunity to purchase the Equipment and Supply Division is something I am extremely excited about.”

Oliver Paine, owner of Merritt Equipment Solutions

The transaction officially closed on September 4, 2026.

The sale reflects Joseph Merritt & Company's strategic decision to focus its resources and expertise on its core printing, scanning, and document services operations, while giving the Equipment and Supply Division the opportunity to continue under experienced leadership.

Paine has been a longtime member of the Joseph Merritt & Company team and has worked closely with the Equipment and Supply Division. His experience with the business, its customers, products, and operations provides a strong foundation for the continued success of Merritt Equipment Solutions. In addition, Oliver has retained the technicians as part of this transaction.

“Having spent more than 20 years with Joseph Merritt & Company, I have had the opportunity to learn this business from the inside and develop strong relationships with our customers and vendors,” said Oliver Paine, owner of Merritt Equipment Solutions. “The opportunity to purchase the Equipment and Supply Division is something I am extremely excited about. I am proud to build on what has been established over the years and look forward to continuing to serve our customers while growing the business into the future.”

Kevin Perry, President of Joseph Merritt & Company, said the transaction was an especially meaningful one because the division will remain in the hands of someone who knows the business and its customers.

“We are very happy to have Oliver take ownership of the Equipment and Supply Division,” said

Kevin Perry, President of Joseph Merritt & Company. "Oliver has been a long-term employee who has dedicated many years to our company and has played an important role in the success of this division. There is a tremendous amount of trust and confidence that comes with selling a part of your business, and knowing that it is going to someone who has been part of the Merritt team for so many years made this the right decision. We believe Oliver has the experience, relationships, and commitment necessary to take the division forward, and we wish him and Merritt Equipment Solutions tremendous success."

Following the transaction, Joseph Merritt & Company will continue to provide its printing and scanning services, including blueprinting, small-format printing, large-format printing, document scanning, and related document services. The company will remain focused on delivering high-quality service and technology solutions to its customers. Customers and prospects can continue to reach Joseph Merritt & Company at 860.296.2500 or info@josephmerritt.com

Merritt Equipment Solutions, LLC will operate independently under Paine's ownership and will continue serving the customers of the Equipment and Supply Division. Existing Customers can reach Merritt Equipment Solutions, LLC at 888.291.3343 and info@merrittequipsolutions.com
