The NY-focused billing group supports workflows shaped by New York Medicaid requirements, Article 31 rules, Ambulatory Patient Group payment methodology, HARP and BH HCBS eligibility, CFTSS billing requirements, and commercial insurance procedures. Claims are reviewed according to the applicable program, provider type, payer requirements, rate structure, eligibility status, and service location before submission.

New York Counties Mental Health Billing Group by BellMedEx also supports the broader revenue cycle process, including insurance eligibility verification, authorization review, claim preparation and submission, denial management, accounts receivable follow up, patient collections, credentialing, payer enrollment, and monthly billing reports. The goal is to identify preventable billing problems earlier and create a more consistent process from patient eligibility through final reimbursement.

For Article 31 and MHOTRS clinics, the BellMedEx team provides billing support aligned with New York reimbursement requirements. Its specialists review applicable rates, medical procedures, modifiers, payer requirements, and received payments to help practices identify claim errors, denials, and potential underpayments.

The company also works with providers delivering HARP, CORE, BH HCBS, CFTSS, and community behavioral health services. These billing workflows account for patient eligibility, rate codes, service location, county requirements, payer routing, supporting documentation, and other factors that can affect how behavioral health claims are processed.
