BUENOS AIRES, BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, September 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Íbero

Our goal is to make Buenos Aires part of the classroom, giving students the opportunity to learn Spanish, live onsite and experience Argentine culture every day.”

Íbero Spanish School Buenos Aires team

Spanish School is inviting international students, travelers, gap-year participants and people considering a longer stay in Argentina to experience Buenos Aires through an intensive Spanish immersion program in the heart of the city.

Late 2026 and 2027 are ideal times to discover Buenos Aires. Spring and summer bring warmer weather, longer days, outdoor cafés, tango, cultural events, historic neighborhoods and an outstanding restaurant scene. At Íbero, students do more than study Spanish — they use the language every day while living in Buenos Aires.

Intensive Spanish Immersion

Íbero Spanish Immersion School in Buenos Aires offers:

- 20 hours of Spanish classes per week
- Very small groups, usually 3–6 students
- Spanish Placement Test
- Spanish textbooks and structured course syllabus
- Levels from beginner to advanced
- Spanish Private and combination courses available

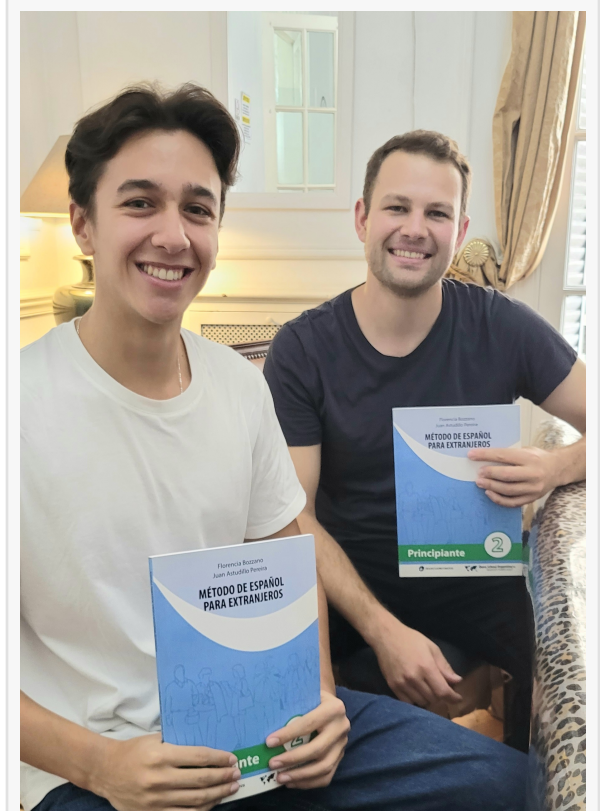

Our Classes focus on real communication, conversation, listening, grammar, vocabulary and everyday Spanish. Learn Spanish and Live in the Same Building

Through Íbero's Live & Learn program, students can stay at Palacio Piedras, the same historic San Telmo-area building where classes take place. Íbero positions itself as the only Spanish school in Buenos Aires offering accommodation inside the same building as its classrooms. Palacio Piedras offers private and shared rooms, Wi-Fi, kitchen facilities, common areas, regular housekeeping and controlled access. The building also holds a City Government safety certification. Students have no daily commute and can easily explore Buenos Aires after class. Public transportation is nearby, with easy access to San Telmo, Plaza de Mayo, Puerto Madero, Recoleta, Palermo, La Boca and other important areas of the city.

TEFL Certification in Buenos Aires

Native English speakers and highly proficient English speakers can also complete an in-person TEFL certification course through Buenos Aires TEFL Institute. The 130-hour program trains participants to teach English to Spanish speakers and learners from other language backgrounds. Training includes teaching methodology, lesson planning, grammar, classroom management, observation, supervised teaching practice and job placement assistance. Students can therefore combine Spanish immersion with a professional qualification that may help them teach English in Argentina, abroad or online.
