

Milwaukee Cylinder Acquires Pneumatic Cylinders & Couplers

MILWAUKEE, WI, UNITED STATES,
September 16, 2026 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Milwaukee Cylinder, a portfolio company of Madison Lake Capital (Madison, Wisconsin), today announced the acquisition of Pneumatic Cylinders & Couplers (PCC), a Midwest-based (Machesney Park) manufacturer of industrial aluminum and stainless-steel pneumatic NFPA tie-rod cylinders.

The acquisition expands Milwaukee Cylinder's pneumatic cylinder offering and strengthens its ability to serve customers with a broader range of fluid power solutions. PCC's manufacturing capabilities, product portfolio, and industry expertise complement Milwaukee Cylinder's established hydraulic and pneumatic cylinder business.

Milwaukee Cylinder Headquarters

This acquisition is a natural fit for Milwaukee Cylinder”

Douglas Lacina, President of Milwaukee Cylinder

PCC will continue its core products and offerings, maintaining customer relationships and its commitment to serving distributors and private-label partners with the same confidentiality, service, and responsiveness they expect today. Under the Milwaukee Cylinder umbrella, the company intends to grow the current partnerships leveraging Milwaukee Cylinder's established brand, sales organization, and distribution network.

"This acquisition is a natural fit for Milwaukee Cylinder," said Douglas Lacina, President of Milwaukee Cylinder "PCC has excellent products, strong manufacturing capabilities, and a respected reputation in the marketplace. By combining those strengths with Milwaukee Cylinder's brand, engineering resources, and distribution network, we see significant opportunities for growth."
