EINPresswire.com/ -- B2i Digital, Inc. is featuring 121 Mining Investment's New York, Global Online and London events as B2i Digital Featured Conferences and providing marketing support for all three. The mining companies at those events get B2i Digital's media network and investor community behind them.

B2i Digital Provides Marketing Support for the BHP Xplor x 121 Mining Investment Showcase in New York on September 17, 121 Global Online on October 13 and 14, and 121 London on November 23 and 24

B2i Digital's community is built on micro- and small-cap investors across sectors. Putting them in front of 121's participating companies adds investors those companies wouldn't otherwise meet.

“

Partnering with 121 in New York, London and online is exactly how B2i connects public companies with investors everywhere. Conquering the world one conference at a time.”

David Shapiro, Chief Executive Officer of B2i Digital, Inc.

This fall is only the start. 121 Mining Investment has 9 events scheduled through September 2027, with Dubai, Cape Town, Miami, Hong Kong, a spring London edition, New York and Dallas still to come, and B2i Digital is adding every one of them to b2idigital.com/conferences. By 121's own count, the series puts 600+ mining companies and nearly 3,000 qualified investors into more than 10,000 meetings. Over the next year, B2i's audience gets a look at all of it.

"121 runs the largest mining investor conference series in the world. We only go big, and we only go big with the best in each sector.
