Florida's Fresh Grill Named 2026 Best of Florida Regional Award Winner

COCOA BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Florida’s Fresh Grill has been named a 2026 Best of Florida Regional Award winner, recognizing the Cocoa Beach restaurant’s reputation for fresh, never-frozen seafood and hand-cut Prime steaks served in a relaxed, upscale-casual setting along North Atlantic Avenue.

The recognition reflects a standard the restaurant has built over years: nothing pre-portioned, nothing frozen, and nothing dressed up to hide its age. Prime steaks are hand-cut in house, while sustainably sourced fresh fish is prepared daily alongside made-from-scratch soups, sauces, and desserts. It’s a labor-intensive approach in an industry that often rewards shortcuts, but it’s one that has helped turn first-time visitors into regulars and regulars into longtime supporters.

That philosophy is also helping guide the restaurant into a new chapter. Owner Alec Turner took over Florida’s Fresh Grill in mid-April with a goal of building on an already strong foundation while continuing to raise the bar for food, service, and the overall guest experience. Rather than changing what made the restaurant successful, Turner is focused on enhancing it and carrying its reputation forward.

“This award is a great step in the continued direction of our ‘Stay Fresh, Stay Local’ attitude,” said Turner. “I took over a restaurant that already had an impressive reputation, and my goal has been to build on that foundation and make the experience even better. This recognition means a great deal to our team and reinforces that we’re headed in the right direction.”

Beyond the kitchen, Florida’s Fresh Grill has built its identity around the ability to welcome visitors passing through Cocoa Beach while still feeling like a neighborhood restaurant to the people who return again and again. That balance shows up in its focus on sourcing, hospitality, and consistency, as well as a longstanding reputation as a highly rated Cocoa Beach dining destination.

As Florida’s Fresh Grill looks ahead under Turner’s ownership, the 2026 Best of Florida Regional Award serves as both recognition of what the restaurant has already accomplished and a marker for where it is headed next: keeping what works, improving where it can, and staying true to the fresh, local approach that built its following in the first place.
