WOODLAND PARK, CO, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tava House recently partnered with new team member, meet Special Events Director, Melody Campbell. Her professional role with events began in 2013 when she organized more than 200 attendee wellness seminars and classes. Her next endeavor saw her creating elaborate sales dinners for high-net-worth clients for a real estate company. Her most recent positions were with Red Leg Brewing in Colorado Springs, Colorado and the Ute Pass Cultural Center in Woodland Park, Colorado.

Campbell was first attracted to Tava House by the incredible building. “I am so impressed by the design and the thoughtfulness that went into creating the space. I still have an incredible view of Pikes Peak while I work,” said Campbell. “Second, I now get to explore all different types of events and gatherings. Events are my passion. Before, I was mainly assisting others in creating their events but now I get to create events first-hand for my community,” she continued. “And third, is the food. I have already tried some of the tastiest dishes ever put in front of me.”

> I feel that where the best opportunity comes in is that Tava House is brand new. There is no - we already did that and it won't work. They are giving me the freedom and creativity to try it all!”

Anyone who has worked with Campbell knows that she brings a high level of professionalism and organization to everything she does. “I try to think of the customer's needs beforehand and fill those needs before it ever even comes up,” said Campbell.

Her plans to enhance the Tava special events atmosphere include building new and improved wedding and event rental packages and bringing diverse events geared toward all members of our community. “I have ideas on how to bring the nearby restaurants together for a history festival," she shared. But mostly she plans on listening to the needs of Woodland Park and beyond in order to provide the community hub that everyone will want to visit and enjoy.

Campbell looks forward to growing her event knowledge as a whole. "This is a big step for me and I have not had as much experience with fine dining and Tava already has events booked that I need to pick up on where the previous, extremely talented, event manager left off," said Campbell. "I also want to create approachable events and classes that allow our neighbors to get fancy and feel confident stepping out of their comfort zone. I also want to stay in touch with my roots so comedy nights, music video bingo, trivia, watch parties, those are all my bread and butter."

"I feel that where the best opportunity comes in is that Tava House is brand new," said Campbell. "We can try it all. There is no - we already did that and it won't work. They are giving me the freedom and creativity to try it all!"

When she's not planning events, you can find Campbell relaxing in a body of water somewhere in the Pikes Peak Region, playing soccer in the beautiful outdoors or hanging out with her husband, daughter and dog at home.
