Lancaster | Exquisitely Designed, Masterfully Handcrafted

Founder & President Bill Lancaster will host the celebration alongside the Lancaster family and team, marking 40 years of luxury custom upholstery handcrafted in High Point. Guests will enjoy drinks and bites while special stories are shared in meaningful conversation celebrating the history and heritage of the Lancaster brand.

For four decades, Lancaster has partnered with notable interior designers, guided by a collective passion for time-honored craftsmanship. The company remains committed to the highest standards of quality and comfort, honoring the master craftspeople who helped establish High Point as the furniture capital of the world.

"Over 40 years, we've seen a lot of change in the industry," said Bill Lancaster. "But one thing has endured: the value of careful attention to detail, fine craftsmanship, and exquisite design combining to create heirloom-quality pieces that transcend design trends. That's what we're celebrating, and what we'll keep building for the next 40 years. We look forward to sharing this moment with the people who have been part of our journey."

Interior designers and industry professionals are invited to join the celebration. RSVP at lancasterccu.com/hpmkt.
