Roadway Moving Expands Premium Local Moving Services Across New Jersey

The award-winning NYC mover now offers local moves in Jersey City, Hoboken, Newark, Montclair and beyond, bringing its white-glove service statewide.

After 36,000+ moves a year and 300+ trucks, the NYC premium mover brings local service to Jersey City, Hoboken, Newark and the rest of New Jersey.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Customers can now book Roadway Moving's signature white-glove moving experience for moves within the Garden State.

Roadway Moving, one of the nation's leading premium moving companies, today announced the expansion of its services to include local residential and commercial moves throughout New Jersey, bringing the company's award-winning moving experience to customers relocating within the Garden State.

Known for combining luxury-level service with innovative technology, Roadway Moving has long served New Jersey residents through interstate and long-distance relocations. With this expansion, customers throughout New Jersey, including Jersey City, Hoboken, Newark, Fort Lee, New Brunswick, Montclair, and Short Hills, can now book Roadway Moving for local moves within the state.

"Since day one, our focus has never been on growing as quickly as possible. It has been on growing the right way," said Ross Sapir, Founder and CEO of Roadway Moving. "We've spent years building the people, infrastructure, technology, and operational excellence necessary to deliver an exceptional moving experience. Expanding into local New Jersey moves is a natural next step that allows us to bring that same level of service to even more customers."

At the center of Roadway Moving's approach is a hospitality-first philosophy that extends across the entire organization. Sapir describes Roadway Moving as a hospitality company that happens to operate in the moving industry, with every team and customer touchpoint focused on care, attention, communication, and service. That philosophy shapes how the company trains its teams, supports customers throughout the moving process, invests in technology and infrastructure, and delivers a consistent experience from the first interaction through the completion of each move.

New Jersey customers now have access to Roadway Moving's professionally trained movers, dedicated move coordinators, modern fleet, premium packing materials, professional packing and unpacking, specialty-item handling, and technology-driven customer experience. Roadway Moving also serves long-distance and interstate relocations originating in New Jersey, as well as office and commercial moves, with specialized logistics and climate-controlled solutions available for high-value and sensitive assets, including fine art, wine collections, data center equipment, and medical supplies.

The New Jersey expansion follows another year of significant growth for Roadway Moving. The company now completes more than 36,000 moves annually, operates a fleet of more than 300 vehicles, and employs more than 800 people nationwide. With the addition of its new 117,000-square-foot Long Island City facility, Roadway Moving now operates more than 500,000 square feet of warehouse space, including climate-controlled storage in New York.

Roadway Moving’s broader footprint includes New York, New Jersey, Los Angeles, the San Francisco Bay Area, Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Atlanta, Seattle, and Tampa. Atlanta and Seattle currently support long-distance moves only, while the other listed markets support both local and long-distance moves. This growing network reflects Roadway Moving’s continued national expansion and the infrastructure supporting customers across key U.S. regions.

Roadway Moving is the Official Moving & Storage Partner of the New York Yankees and the Official Moving Company of the Chicago Bulls. The company is also a three-time ConsumerAffairs Buyers Choice Award recipient, as of 2026 and an A+ Accredited Business with the Better Business Bureau.

New Jersey customers can now book local moving services for apartments, single-family homes, luxury residences, senior relocations, office and commercial moves, packing and unpacking services, and specialty moves.
