BEVERLY HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- La Colina Retreats, the invitation-only private retreat estate founded by entrepreneur and SINC Certified Master Neurocoach™ Carol Register in the Andes Mountains of southern Chile, was a sponsor of The Marianna Group's HARVEST Awards Week Experience on September 10 at the Beverly Hills Marriott. The event took place during Awards Week in Los Angeles, just days ahead of the 78th Emmy® Awards.

Produced by Heather Marianna and The Marianna Group, HARVEST brought together entertainment industry guests, media and participating brands. The appearance followed La Colina Retreats' participation in Marianna's "A Toast to Hollywood" gifting lounge during Oscars® Week earlier this year.

At the La Colina Retreats activation, Register introduced guests to the Chilean retreat experience while offering retreat giveaways valued at $50,000 and exclusive bonuses for The Neurowealth Method™. Guests received satin eye masks, with blue leather luggage tags to follow by mail.

Register connected with actors Kim Estes, Kristanna Loken, Sofia Milos, Wendy Braun and Kristos Andrews, as well as Ernest Harden Jr., who won his first Emmy Award for The Pitt days before the event. She also spent time with HARVEST producer Heather Marianna.

“Hollywood and the Andes may seem worlds apart, but many of the people I work with are asking the same questions regardless of where they are,” said Register. “What happens after you’ve achieved what you thought you wanted? How do you continue to grow without living in a constant state of pressure? La Colina gives people the space to reset their nervous systems and examine what is driving them beneath the surface.”

Located in southern Chile’s Lake District, La Colina hosts a limited number of invitation-only retreats each year for high-achieving entrepreneurs, executives and leaders. Register’s approach combines nature immersion and nervous-system regulation with her neuroscience-based work around subconscious identity, wealth and personal transformation.

Register also participated in several media interviews during HARVEST, including conversations with Mike C-Roc, Terri Marie of Movie Reviews & More, Lore Vision Media and Tyrone Tann of Stauros Entertainment.

“La Colina isn’t about escaping a successful life,” Register said. “It’s about creating enough distance from the pace of that life to understand what you want the next chapter of it to look like.”

The HARVEST Awards Week Experience was not affiliated with, sponsored by or endorsed by the Television Academy or the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences. A Toast to Hollywood was not affiliated with, sponsored by or endorsed by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.
